

NU baseball team wakes up, beats Cats

By Mark Derowitsch
Staff Reporter

The Nebraska baseball team came out of winter hibernation during the bottom of the fourth inning Wednesday to post a 22-6 season opening win over Northwest Missouri State.

Nebraska coach John Sanders said he was pleased with the team's first contest, which drew an estimated 200 fans to Buck Beltzer Field.

"It's a good start," Sanders said. "We weren't exactly pretty; there were some pretty crazy things out there, but we ended up with a win. It was a good first game." The Cornhuskers got off to a slow start as Northwest Missouri scored three times in the top of the first. Third baseman Bruce Watson doubled home leadoff man Scott Weber for the game's first run. That was the only earned run off starting pitcher Rocky Johnson that the Bearcats managed. A Nebraska error allowed the other Bearcats runs to score.

Nebraska answered with two runs of its own in the first when Todd Bunge and Joe Federico both drove home runs to cut the lead to one.

Northwest Missouri State added one more run in the second, but that was all the scoring until the Huskers woke up in the fourth.

The big blow to the Bearcats that inning was Federico's grand slam home run to right-center field to give Nebraska the lead for good.

Sanders said that Nebraska needed time to get going.

"The idea that it takes a little time to get the game rhythm and the idea that it's the first game out," he said.

"Even though it's a Division II school, it's still the first game out and its takes just a little bit of time to get into the game rhythm so tomorrow we should check until giving way to reliever Steve Spurgeon. Johnson fanned seven and retired the Bearcats in the fifth and sixth innings on eight and nine pitches, respectively.

"We lost 20 wins last year out of four or five pitchers but were still very strong," Sanders said. "And the people we have back are good and Coach Pratt has done a fine job working with our pitchers in teaching them how to pitch and trying to maximize our abilities and what we have."

The two teams will meet today starting at 1:30 p.m. at Buck Beltzer Field for another nine inning game.
