An die Musik

Thursday, April 2 8 p.m.
Thursday's concert includes works by Beethoven, Bach, Mozart and Schubert chosen by painters Helen Frankenthaler, David Hockney, Robert Motherwell and Kenneth Noland in 1985 for a concert celebrating An die Musik's 10th anniversary. The concert is titled "The Painter's Music/The Musician's Art."

The program notes for the concert will include writings by the painters. Each painter created a poster to commemorate the concert and An die Musik. These posters and other representative works by the artists will be displayed at the gallery in conjunction with the concert. A wine reception and cocktail buffet featuring nouvelle cuisine begins at 6 p.m. Thursday in the Sheldon Gallery Great Hall.

Friday, April 3 8 p.m.
The Friday concert in the Sheldon Memorial Gallery at 8 p.m. offers a different program, including an aria for five instruments that was written for the group by contemporary Polish composer Jerzy Spaleyewski.

Tickets $12, $10 for students; available at Kimball box office or at the door. Reservations can be made by calling 435-5454.
