NU drops 2; softball team wants comeback Home opener Saturday Huskers not prepared against WSU

By Rich Cooper Staff Reporter

Nebraska's softball team will try to break a two-game losing streak Saturday when it plays Utah in its 1987 season opener at the Nebraska Softball Complex.

Nebraska, 23-9 this season and ranked No. 4 in the NCAA coaches' poll, lost two consecutive Big Eight Conference games for the first time ever last weekend to Oklahoma State and Oklahoma.

The Cornhuskers started off last weekend by defeating Oklahoma State 1-0 Saturday in 10 innings behind Lori defeated Oklahoma 3-0.

Because of her performance at the San Jose Invitational last week, Sippel was named the Big Eight Pitcher of the Week. She posteda 3-0 record with two saves while striking out 25 batters and allowing only 10 hits at the tournament.

The Huskers had maintained a sixgame winning streak until Sunday. Nebraska has never lost a home opener.

Sippel's shutout against Oklahoma State Saturday was her eighth this season. She has a career total of 36 shutouts and 669 strikeouts in 528 innings pitched. A new experience awaited the Nebraska baseball team during the Cornhuskers' double-header against Wichita State Wednesday at Buck Beltzer Field.

Nebraska infielder Mark Kister said that for the first time this season, the Huskers weren't prepared mentally for an opponent. Kister said that cost Nebraska, as errors and missed opportunities led to 10-9 and 11-5 losses to the Shockers.

'We just weren't ready to play. Baseball is so mental that if you're not ready to play, you're not going to play well.'

-Kister

Kister said the Huskers have to use their performance against the Shockers as a learning experience if they hope to avoid a repeat effort.

"There's no way you can prepare for it, it just has to be done," he said. "We have to be ready to play.

Stephenson said he can attribute that fact largely to a string of road games which took the Shockers from Hawaii to Tulsa, Okla.

"We're playing all the time. We're just a little tired," Stephenson said. "We're showing fatigue."
