Federico, pitchers lift NU

By Steve Sipple
Staff Reporter

A three-hit pitching performance and the end of a hitting slump carried Nebraska to a 10-2 victory and a doubleheader sweep over Northwest Missouri State Wednesday at Buck Beltzer Field.

Joe Federico, whose .250 batting average was the lowest on the Huskers' roster, smacked a three-run double in a four-run sixth inning. He finished the game 3-for-4 with five RBIs.

John Lepley and Pat Leinen combined to shut down the Bearcats to raise Nebraska's record to 30-10. Northwest Missouri State dropped to 20-20.

Nebraska's four-run sixth inning followed a three-run fifth to put the game out of reach. Ken Ramos' single, extending his hitting streak to 14 games, led off the inning. After John Franklin singled and Jeff Taylor was hit by a pitch, the Bearcats replaced reliever Steve Nelson with Mark Roggy.

Federico greeted Roggy with his double and eventually scored on Mark Kister's single.

Lepley earned the victory, raising his record to 4-1. Monte Johnson got the loss in his first decision of the season.

In the first game, McGraw Milhaven won his second straight decision, going 7.1 strong innings in Nebraska's 7-4 victory. Phil Goguen, his forkball bailing the Bearcats, came on in the eighth and struck out all five batters he faced in picking up his first save.

Jeff Taylor, starting in place of Federico at designated-hitter, went 3-for-4 with three RBIs. His two-run single to right was the big blow in Nebraska's four-run third inning.

Tim Wolters (3-2) got the loss in the first game, giving up five runs and five hits in four innings.

Coach John Sanders said his club, ranked No. 18 in the ESPN/Collegiate Baseball poll, needed the victories for momentum heading into this weekend's showdown with No. 1-ranked Oklahoma State.

Huskers to face top-ranked OSU

By Tim Hartmann
Staff Reporter

A four-game series at Oklahoma State beginning Friday will provide the Nebraska baseball team with its next big test of the season, Coach John Sanders said.

Oklahoma State, 40-4 overall (not including a game yesterday with Texas Western) and 8-1 in Big Eight Conference play, is ranked No. 1 in the country by ESPN, but suffered a 9-8 loss to No. 5-ranked Arkansas Tuesday.

Sanders said that Oklahoma State's field is a hitter's park.

"They are going to score some runs and we are going to score some runs," Sanders said. "Their park is very conducive to scoring runs."

The Cowboys return 17 letter-winners from last year's 56-15 team, which finished fourth in the College World Series in Omaha.

They also return three all-Big Eight players from last season: first baseman Jimmy Barragan, designated hitter Jim Inland and third baseman Robin Ventura.

Three Cowboys are batting over .400. Outfielder Anthony Blackmon leads the team in hitting with a .444 batting average, and Inland and Ventura are second and third. Inland is hitting .436 with 10 home runs and 60 runs batted in, and Ventura is hitting .403 with 15 home runs and 71 RBIs.

Facing a highly ranked opponent is nothing new this season for Nebraska. Two weeks ago, the Cornhuskers swept a four-game series from Oklahoma, the No. 4-ranked team in the country at the time. Sanders said the victories over Oklahoma will help the team this weekend.

Nebraska is 30-8 overall and 8-0 in the Big Eight. Seven Huskers are hitting over .300; Mark Kister leads the way with a .383 average. Todd Bunge is next at .376, and Ken Ramos is right behind at .372. Ron Crowe and Joe Federico lead the team in home runs with eight each.

Two Oklahoma State football players went out for baseball this spring. Quarterback Mike Gundy played infield for the cowboys but quit the team when spring football started. Wide receiver Hart Lee Dykes pitches for Oklahoma State and may pitch this weekend. Dykes, an all-Big Eight selection in football, is 2-0 on the season with a 5.43 earned run average.

Phil Goguen, Rock Johnson, John Lepley and John Kohli will be the starting pitchers for Nebraska, Sanders said.

"The rotation is not set, but those are the four we will be using," he said.

DEAN BROS. LINCOLN-MERCURY

Congratulations College Graduate!

Graduating from college is no small achievement!

Dean Bros. Lincoln Mercury would like to invite you to participate in the 1987 College Graduate purchase program. The program date is April 1-August 31, 1987.

If you purchase a new 1987 Mercury Lynx, Topaz, Sable, Cougar, or the new 1988 Mercury Tracer, you are eligible for $400.00 cash from Ford Motor Company, and special interest rates as low as 3.9 APR. You need little or no money down.

Here are the program rules:

1. You must have verifiable employment that begins within 120 days of your vehicle purchase, at a salary sufficient to cover ordinary living expenses and your vehicle payment.
2. You must have proof that you have graduated or will graduate, and be awarded at least a bachelor degree between October 1, 1986 and September 30, 1987.
3. Your credit record, if you have one, must indicate payments made as agreed.

This finance plan will enable you to conveniently purchase a new vehicle . . . and establish your credit reputation in the community.
