

Magic Theatre to air 'Future Soap,' a fictional tale of life tomorrow

The Magic Theatre will open a new science-fiction play, "Future Soap," on May 1. "Future Soap," written by 1987-88 Rockefeller Fellowship winner Megan Terry, will have original music by Omahans Bill Farber, Frank Fong, Mark Nelson and Eric Goolsby. It is directed by Gerald Ostdiek.

"Future Soap" is the second offering in the Magic Theatre's program of sharing with audiences some of the wealth of new works created in the '60s that changed the face of the American theater. Terry's "Future Soap" was produced on National Educational Television in 1968 and 1969. Do you wonder what life on earth might be like a thousand years from now? See "Future Soap" at the Magic Theatre. In "Future Soap," Terry's characters live, work, eat, play, dream and die in a small cubicle under the constant surveillance of "Central Control." According to Ostdiek, "You saw 1984 trap humanity under the gaze of Big Brother, look against as "Future Soap" burns in the eye of Central Control."

The futuristic set was designed and created by Judith and Daniel Shepard. The Shepards were selected from many area visual artists and sculptors who submitted proposals as a part of the environment installation competition sponsored by the Magic Theatre.

"Future Soap" will play at the Omaha Magic Theatre, 1417 Farnam Street. All performances begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be played Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights — May 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, 10, 11, 15, 16, 17 and 18. Seating is limited at the Magic Theatre; make reservations in advance by calling 346-1227.

The World on Stage

"Trust ME!"

"Are you kidding? Go to a string quartet? I can't stand all that artsy-fartsy stuff! I like to go to the bars on Thursdays and get rude and crude on the weekends. I couldn't believe Kimball could change my mind about getting a little culture, but it did."

Mark Butler
Pre-Med
Junior

"On cool autumn evenings, I like to go to the lake and stare at stars. I enjoy driving fast late at night with loud music blasting from the radio and the windows open. I never do anything early. Casablanca and feather pillows top off a perfect evening. I do Kimball."

Kelly D. Casey
Physics
Freshman

"People get a chance to see unique entertainment that they may not get the opportunity to enjoy once out of school. It's a relaxing, fun break from the rigors of studying."

Brad Ropp

"How 'bout them Huskers?" I never watch Husker football. I do like to eat Vic's popcorn, read Bloom County, and go to Kimball series events."
