BANDS from Page 16

Hardy Holm and Dave Newman — The usual front porch croonin' duo. Should make people who like rock music and folk rock but wouldn't touch an album less than 10 years old very happy. Single "Ballad of Oral Roberts" received airplay.

Tablerockers — Zoo Bar house band with bar owner Larry Boehmer on bass. Usually features one of the greatest blues guitarists on the planet, Sean Benjamin. He not only knows the moves, he knows what concoction of guts, soul and spen is behind the moves. Blues. Very.

Psyches — In the process of a possible name change but they were formerly a high-energy cover band with a horn section who played anything from James Brown to the Talking Heads.

something like that because that's a respectable profession (She means they make more money). But I remember when I was a little kid and I asked her why people keep going to school even after they graduate and don't have to anymore. She told me it's so they can get the job they want.

Gee, now that I'm a college student and out on my own and all, I wonder what kind of wild, crazy, college student fun I can get into, like in those movies. Maybe me and Ralph and Thistle and those two girls in my class could get some beer and go on a wild, crazy road trip. I wish I had a car.

Boy, I've really been waiting for this. I can eat pizza, stay up late, not brush my teeth, I don't have to do my homework if I don't want to, and I can go anywhere I want without asking or making up a story.

There sure seems to be a lot of events and things going on here all the time. This flyer I found on my desk has a whole list of really fun, cool things to do here on campus. It says that there's an all-university dance Friday night at the union. I guess that means everybody will be there. Sure hope it's not too crowded. Aw, darn, it says there's also a Student Suicide seminar that same night.

I wonder which one I should go to. Maybe I better call Mom.

Confidentials — Aka-influenced cover band with too many members to comfortably fit into a basement. English Beat, Elvis Costello.

Precautionz — Pedestrian cover band with a penchant for early '80s punk/new wave.

Hybrid — A bright funk trio that's a little too tight for its own good. Sort of Red Hot Chili Peppers after a hard day at the insurance office. Gobs of potential.

Justus — Top 40/Metal. Name indicates marginal sense of humor.

Assault — Ditto. Name indicates lack of imagination. Mazir el Sharif-Lincoln Journal called their EP best of last year. The band doesn't play much but the album is moody New Order-ish throb which either induces suicidal impulses or a very cerebral form of happy feet, depending on your tastes.

Too Many Daves — Hazy group of suburbanite off-beats who've mastered a relatively "authentic" retro-punk sound. Hipsters-catchy pop covers. A few good originals. Costello again. Bangles.

Airstrike — Walking advertisement for the local Spandex boutiques. Thudding, barely proficient metal act with pretensions to an arena career that would have put Head East or early REO Speedwagon to shame. Poses and pomp galore. There's an album of well-produced original music available, carrying the aerial assault metaphor about 20,000 leagues too far.

The Switch — Popular reggae/ska band.

Metacrats — Kurt Weill cabaret-style sophistication meets lead vocalist Mark Harper's scatological/genital fixations. Very different. Very talented. Music not intended for drunk party animals.

For Against — Possibly the most successful of Lincoln's alternative bands. A heady mix of Savage Republic moodiness and Jesus and Mary Chain guitar noise. Their album "Echelons" on California's Independent Projects Records is doing well on the college radio charts. All original material. By turns boring and haunting.

Playground — Very moody, static guitar band. The name is highly ironic. All originals.

Linoma Mashers — Energetic ska covers and originals. Lots of fun.

Cellophane Ceiling — Heavy post-punk with a great locally produced album. Very loud and very good. The lead singer John Wolff sounds like Jeffrey Lee Pierce of the Gun Club and the original music is first-rate.

Mother's Big Jazz Band — Jazz

as in Duke Ellington and Benny Goodman, not as in John Coltrane. Usually free and usually quite fine if big band music is your gig.

Sweet Potato Band — Fun, proficient bar band plays MOR country, Buddy Holly, TV themes. Real popular in bars west of the O Street overpass.

New High Flyers — Country, roots rock purists distinguished by virtuosic musicianship and great taste in songs. On the Fritz-Top 40. See Justin Morgan, et. al.

Laurie McClain — Folk singer/songwriter. Her own material is strong enough to merit some national attention in the singer/songwriter genre.

Cornerstone — Christian rock.

Trash Can Alley — Five-man accapella group with ultra-tight harmonies. Cute stage show.

Lampshades — Where are you?
