Bon Jovi cancels their FarmAid III appearance

Heavy metal rock group Bon Jovi will not be at FarmAid III on Sept. 19, despite some earlier reports that had them listed for the concert.

A FarmAid volunteer said that the group originally was scheduled for the Sept. 27 concert date, but had prior commitments for Sept. 19.

Also, an MCA records spokesperson said the rock group Night Ranger's Friday concert in Omaha has been canceled. No reasons were given for the cancellation.

Night Ranger last played in the area Sept. 4, 1985, at Pershing Auditorium. Bon Jovi opened for Ratt that same fall at Pershing.
