Actor Greene, singer Tosh dead

By the Associated Press

Actor Lorne Greene died and reggae star Peter Tosh was killed Friday.

Greene, who for 14 years played the firm but gentle father to three strapping sons as Ben Cartwright on television's "Bonanza," died Friday. He was 72.

Greene died at St. John's Hospital. "The cause of death is listed as respiratory arrest followed by cardiac arrest," said St. John's spokeswoman Mary Miller. She said Greene died at 12:14 p.m.

A barrel-chested man with white hair, bushy black eyebrows and a deep, resonant voice, Greene tried different television roles late in his career, playing a detective in "Griff," a space commander in "Battlestar Galactica" and a fire chief in "Code Red."

But he remained most closely tied to his image as a widower in the old west, the patriarch who rode herd on a trio of headstrong sons — Adam, Hoss and Little Joe — played by Pernell Roberts, Dan Blocker and Michael Landon.

Robbers shot and killed Tosh, a founding father of reggae, Jamaica's vibrant music of revolution, police said.

The attackers who entered Tosh's home Friday night also killed another man and wounded the 42-year-old singer-songwriter's wife and four other people.
