

Nee uses scrimmages to evaluate players

By Tim Hartmann
Senior Reporter

Nebraska basketball coach Danny Nee will have three intrasquad scrimmages this season, the first of which will be Thursday night at Falls City High School.

In addition to Falls City, the Cornhuskers will scrimmage on Nov. 5 and 12 at Kearney and Norfolk High Schools.

The Huskers will play an exhibition game against the Czechoslovakian National Team on Nov. 19 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center and then open their season on Nov.

27 against Villanova in the Hawaiian Airlines Maui Classic. The game will be televised by ESPN.

Nee said the scrimmages will give Nebraska experience and will help him evaluate the players.

"The first thing we want to accomplish is to get us in game conditions — we'll use officials, play in front of crowds and use the clock," Nee said. "It's also really an opportunity for us to evaluate people and try to play with different combinations."

Nee said the team will be split into red and white squads. He said the teams are not necessarily divided into a first and second string and are subject to change.

Nee said guards Henry T. Buchanan and Eric Johnson will play together "because those two are probably your starting backcourt."

Seven players on the team are freshmen, and Nee said inexperience has shown in practice.

"It's been slow," he said. "It's slow because we've got a lot of newcomers."

Nee said freshman Rich King and Kelly Lively have performed well in practice. He said no decision has been made on whether the two centers will redshirt this season.

Nee said the Huskers will benefit from the experience of Buchanan and forward Derrick Vick, both of whom started for last year's team that finished third in the National Invitation Tournament with a 21-12 record.

"I think it's going to be very important that our seniors really show some leadership and consistency," Nee said.
