

Coach optimistic after tie with Sooners

neously on two mats. The 118-pound 150-pound weight classes wrestled on one mat, while the 158 through heavyweight classes wrestled on the other. The Huskers won the first three matches against Oklahoma and took an early 9-0 lead. But the Sooners quickly tied the dual in the next three matches, and the team score remained tied going into the final two matches.

At 150, Oklahoma's William "Junior" Taylor, ranked No. 10 in the nation, decided Keenan Turner 9-5. Taylor originally had signed with Nebraska in 1983 and qualified for the NCAA Championships at 142 that year. He moved to 150 the next season — the same year Turner became a Husker.

Taylor was dismissed from the team later that season.
"Taylor against Turner was an emotional match for everyone in-involved, since Taylor used to wrestle here," Neumann said.

The dual came down to the final match in the heavyweight division. Nebraska's Joe Malecek defeated the Sooners' Mark Tatum, ranked eighth in the nation in his class, 7-4 to ensure the tie.

Neumann said he was counting on Turner winning his match and Malecek coming up short in his.

"Honestly, I thought it was going to end up in a tie, but not that way," he said. "Malecek beating Tatum that way was a real big step for him."

Malecek called the match his best performance of the season.

"It was the first time this season that I beat somebody I wasn't supposed to beat," Malecek said.

Other Husker winners against Oklahoma included Terry Cook at 118, Wallace Dawkins at 126, Dave Rowe at 132 and Jeff Colvet at 158.

Against Northern Illinois, the Huskers won their first five matches and drew a forfeit on the sixth to put the dual away early. Highlights included Cook's 21-6 technical fall against Scott Swanson at 118 and Dave Droegemueller's 16-0 technical fall against Mike Gonio at 134.

Nebraska, now 7-9-1 in dual competition, will finish its dual season Wednesday at Drake University in preparation for the Big Eight Championships March 6 at Norman, Okla., and the NCAA Championships the next week at Ames, Iowa.

INTERNSHIP JUNIOR HIGH TEACHER PREPARATION PROJECT
LINCOLN PUBLIC SCHOOLS-UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN

A fifth year internship experience is being offered for people specifically interested in teaching in the junior high. This is a unique experience designed to provide support between the student teaching practicum and a full-time teaching position. The internship is part of a collaborative project between the Lincoln Public Schools and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Teachers College. This internship is a full year's experience, combining a half-time teaching assignment in a junior high with a half-time graduate studies component. A stipend will be paid for teaching three classes in a junior high in Lincoln. Nine hours of graduate credit per semester may be earned from UN-L. Completion of the internship may lead to a middle school endorsement. Students who will have graduated by August, 1988 and have applied for both a teaching certificate and intend to see admission to a graduate program are eligible to apply for an internship.
