

Ticket lottery starts March 28

From Staff Reports

Students who wish to purchase 1988 season football tickets will be able to draw a lottery number March 28 through April 1, associate ticket manager Joe Selig said.

Selig said in order to draw a lottery number, students must present a completed application, cash, personal check or money order and a current full-time student ID at the South Stadium Ticket Office from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. The price for a student ticket is $42, and married students may purchase a spouse ticket for $110.

"My suggestion to students is to come earlier in the week so they may not have to wait in lines so long," Selig said. "In the past, many students and groups have waited to come in until Friday afternoon."

Selig said students will draw lottery numbers when they turn in their application. He said ticket orders will be filled from the largest lottery number to the smallest.

"One person can bring in up to 100 students' applications," Selig said. "It is important for students to be aware that all checks in the group have to match the application or correct change needs to be available."

Ticket applications are available at the South Stadium Ticket Office, Administration Building 110—Student Accounts and the East Union information desk.

Selig said he expects to fill 6,000 applications through the lottery. He said students who miss the lottery deadline may apply for tickets until 4 p.m. Aug. 23.

Huskers sweep the Bears off the field

It's difficult to find weaknesses in the Nebraska baseball team's play these days, but Cornhusker coach John Sanders managed to after his team's 13-1 victory against Northern Colorado on Sunday.

The win, before 349 fans at Buck Beltzer Field, gave Nebraska a three-game sweep of the Bears and raised its record to 10-0. The Huskers defeated Northern Colorado 12-2 and 7-1 in Saturday's doubleheader. Northern Colorado fell to 3-5.

"We beat them and we beat them like we should," Sanders said. "But in the last game we lost concentration at the plate. Our pitching and defense was good throughout the whole series, but today our concentration fell off at the plate."

Nebraska scored its runs Sunday despite getting only seven hits. The Huskers capitalized on five Northern Colorado errors and eight walks to gain most of their runs.

Sanders said his main concern was that 10 Huskers struck out Sunday. In Saturday's doubleheader, Nebraska batters struck out only three times and drew 19 walks.

"We weren't very smart hitters today," Sanders said. "We swung at some pitches that were out of the zone and took some good pitches. That could cause some problems down the road."

Nebraska still was able to dominate the Bears, jumping to a 9-0 lead after three innings. After scoring two runs in the first and second innings off Northern Colorado's starting pitcher, Chris Colletti, the Huskers jumped on relief pitchers Rick DiSalle and John Schalk for five third-inning runs.

DiSalle started the third by hitting Husker catcher Tim Pettengill with a pitch. Pettengill moved to second on Shawn Buchanan fielder's choice ground out and scored on Bobby Benjamin's single to right, giving the Huskers a 5-0 lead.

Crowe had six RBIs in Nebraska's 12-2 first-game victory on Saturday. Ramos scored the Huskers' ninth

My first time tutoring was a night to remember. My student was something called Bone Crusher Reed, a.k.a. Billy Jo, defensive tackle for the football team.

I had the shock of my life when he answered his dorm room door. He was about six foot seven...in diameter. And when he shook my hand, I thought I'd never get it back.

So there I was, face-to-knee with the big man on campus, wondering how I was going to relate American Literature to The Hulk.

But then he pulled out a can of Orange Cappuccino. I was shocked! Could it be that this tough jock liked its delicate taste? And when Bone Crusher brought out the bone china, I was beyond belief.

Reading the expression on my face, he said, "What can I say? I like it. The Café Français is pretty good, too." Well, who's going to argue, I thought. As we sipped our Orange Cappuccino, I discovered that Billy Jo loves reading novels; his only problem was poetry. So I gave him tips on reading Emily Dickinson, and he gave me a copy of Ann Beattie's "Falling in Place."

All I could think was, Dad's never going to believe this!
