Panamanian soldiers detain leaders, journalists

PANAMA CITY, Panama — Soldiers firing into the air burst into the capital's leading hotel and detained opposition leaders and foreign journalists after an anti-government demonstration was smashed by authorities.

The military confiscated the film of foreign television crews at the Marriott Hotel, which has been used for weeks as an informal headquarters by scores of American and other reporters and leaders of the National Civic Crusade.

Opposition spokesmen said nearly 20 of their leaders were detained. Eight foreign journalists, including Richard Cole of The Associated Press, were taken away and held for about three hours.

Two top Meese aides quit abruptly

WASHINGTON — In a move that reportedly shocked Attorney General Edwin Meese III, the Justice Department's No. 2 official and the head of the department's criminal division abruptly resigned Tuesday amid a nearly year-old criminal investigation of Meese.

Deputy Attorney General Arnold Burns said in a letter to President Reagan that "Unfortunately, I have regretfully concluded that I must return to private life at this time." He did not elaborate.

William Weld, who as an assistant attorney general oversees all federal criminal investigations, resigned effective at the close of the business day Tuesday, despite a personal plea from other department officials that he remain on for several weeks.

Two of Burns' aides and two of Weld's aides also quit simultaneously.

Israel's army isolates occupied territories

RAMALLAH, Occupied West Bank — Israel's army isolated the occupied territories Tuesday, but Palestinians threw gasoline bombs at patrolling soldiers and the Israelis opened fire and wounded eight of the demonstrators.

The unprecedented crackdown on the 1.5 million Arabs in the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip was aimed at halting four months of unrest and at preventing mass demonstrations by Palestinians on Wednesday's 12th anniversary of Land Day, when Israeli soldiers killed six Arabs protesting land confiscation.

Foreign relief workers were barred from entering the occupied lands. Thousands of police were mobilized Tuesday evening to enforce curfews in Arab towns in Israel.

Swaggart barred from pulpit for year

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Fiery evangelist Jimmy Swaggart was ordered Tuesday not to preach from the pulpit or his television show for at least a year while he is rehabilitated from "moral failure" that reportedly included paying a prostitute to pose nude.

In announcing its decision, the Assemblies of God elders disregarded a more lenient three-month suspension recommended by the church in Louisiana. The national church included provisions for two years of rehabilitation and counseling to begin when Swaggart has agreed to rehabilitation in writing.

Louisiana district officials refused comment, as did the Jimmy Swaggart worldwide Ministries in Baton Rouge, La. But a spokesman said Swaggart's ministry would have a statement Wednesday.

"It is hoped that Jimmy Swaggart will agree to this program of rehabilitation and that such program will be redemptive and restorative in the life and ministry of our brother," the Rev. G. Raymond Carlson, the church's general superintendent, said in a statement.

People approved by the church would supervise the rehabilitation, Carlson said. He provided no other details.

"If he does not accept, then the Executive Presbytery would take action to dismiss him," Carlson said at a news conference.

Under the terms of rehabilitation, Swaggart would be barred from his pulpit for at least a year and would have to stop distributing videotaped services that have enabled him to build a worldwide congregation.

Dukakis, Bush win big; Dole withdraws

HARTFORD, Conn. — Michael Dukakis defeated Jesse Jackson in the Connecticut presidential primary Tuesday night and bid for a victory that would reassure Democratic leaders about his troubled candidacy. Dukakis regained a narrow advantage in the duel for national convention delegates.

George Bush was the runaway Republican winner and surefire nominee as well following Bob Dole's withdrawal earlier in the day.

With 79 percent of the precincts reporting, Massachusetts Gov. Dukakis had 59 percent of the vote from his New England neighbors, ending a recent series of poor performances. Jackson, landslide winner last weekend in Michigan and the man with momentum in the race, had 28 percent of the vote.

Sen. Albert Gore lagged with 8 percent and Sen. Paul Simon, who ignored the state, was receiving slightly more than 1 percent.

Dukakis' rivals conceded in advance that the governor would claim a regional victory in advance. Campaign hostilities already were underway in Wisconsin, which votes next Tuesday, and New York, which follows on April 19.

On the Republican side, Bush had 71 percent to Dole's 20 percent. The vice president's lone remaining challenger, former TV evangelist Pat Robertson, had 3 percent and said he didn't dispute Bush's lock on the nomination.

Connecticut's primary offered 35 delegates to the Republican National Convention, and 52 on the Democratic side. Bush was winning 25 to 10 for Dole on the GOP side and Dukakis led for 36 and Jackson 16 among the Democrats.

The Democrats barely took time out from their battle to read the returns from Connecticut. Already Dukakis, Jackson, Gore and Simon were pointing toward primaries in Wisconsin and New York.
