

Shultz arrives in Israel

JERUSALEM — An Arab was electrocuted Sunday after Israeli soldiers forced him to climb a utility pole to remove a Palestinian flag in the West Bank in one of three deaths in the occupied territories, the army said.

U.S. Secretary of State George P. Shultz, arriving on a new Mideast peace shuttle, told Israel to act on his plan for negotiations for Palestinian self-rule.

Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin announced a new army policy to go on the offensive and teach rioting Arabs a lesson.

Sunday's deaths brought to 136 the number of Arabs who have died in four months of protests against Israeli occupation of the West Bank and Gaza Strip, according to U.N. figures. One Israeli soldier has been killed.

Shultz said the Palestinians must be included in peace talks and negotiations must be based on a 1967 United Nations resolution that calls on Israel to give up territory in exchange for Arab recognition.

"For everything there is a season... a time to love and a time to hate; a time for war and a time for peace," he said. "This is the time and the season to move decisively towards peace."

His remarks appeared aimed primarily at Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir, who told reporters during a visit to a West Bank settlement Sunday that Shultz had yet to convince him of the need for an international peace conference.

The American peace proposal calls for an international conference on the Middle East.

Three killed in Easter funeral shooting

EDNEYVILLE, N.C. — A man opened fire on a group of mourners gathering for an Easter Sunday funeral, killing three and wounding three others including his former wife, authorities said.

The shooting occurred in the parking lot of the Mountain Home Baptist Church, where family and friends gathered for a funeral service for Effie Collins Justice, 79. The service had been scheduled to begin at 3 p.m., officials said, and the shooting took place shortly before that.

Michael Leslie Rainey, 41, was charged with three counts of first-degree murder, and three counts of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill.

Military vehicle tries to halt ambassador's car

PANAMA CITY, Panama — A Panamanian military vehicle tried to stop the chauffeur-driven limousine of U.S. Ambassador Arthur Davis on Sunday but the diplomat continued on to his residence, the U.S. Embassy reported.

It called the incident "serious."

The effort to stop the ambassador came after Panamanians rich and poor attended church services observing a somber Easter in the crisis over the refusal of Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega to resign.

Troops on alert for escaped leader

MANILA, Philippines — Troops went on nationwide alert Sunday for the fugitive leader of an August coup attempt, and the military warned that extremists may try to exploit the confusion generated by his daring escape.

Military Chief of Staff Gen. Renato de Villan said former Lt. Col. Gregorio "Gringo" Honasan, who escaped from a prison ship Saturday with 14 guards, may still be in the Manila area.

Troops were also dispatched to the nearby provinces of Cavite and Batangas following unconfirmed reports that Honasan may have fled there.

De Villa also ordered troops on alert in central and southern Philippine islands in case disgruntled officers and politicians try to exploit the volatile situation in Manila and stage attacks against government installations.

Trucks blocked all entrances to military garrisons in the capital.
