Sanders excited to play on home turf

By Steve Sipple
Senior Reporter

Buck Beltzer Field is looking awfully good to the Nebraska baseball team.

After playing its last 17 games on the road, Nebraska will play its first home game since March 15 when it faces Kansas in doubleheaders Saturday and Sunday in Lincoln. The games begin at noon Saturday and 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

"It will be fun to get back home," Nebraska coach John Sanders said. "I know our players are excited, and the coaches are also excited to get back to Buck Beltzer. It's been a long time."

Nebraska, ranked No. 13 in this week's Collegiate Baseball/ESPN national top 30, lost 8-3 to No. 15 Wichita State Wednesday in the final game of its road stint in Wichita, Kan. The Huskers, now 23-8 overall and 3-1 in the Big Eight, won 10 of their 17 road games.

Sanders said he hopes good weather and a big crowd greet the Huskers. He said he hopes for a big crowd from promotions in which all Nebraska students who show their student ID cards will be admitted free and the largest group from a fraternity or sorority wearing their house letters will receive a cash award during Saturday's game.

"It's a pretty good deal," Sanders said.

First-year Kansas coach Dave Bingham said he isn't as excited about coming to Lincoln. The reason for the skepticism, he said, is the Jayhawks' youth. Kansas has three seniors on its roster, and only one — center fielder and team captain Rocky Helm — starts.

"We're a really young team trying to compete in the Big Eight with inexperienced players and, really, inexperienced coaching," Bingham said. "We're all feeling our way through it right now. It will be really hard to compete in this league, at least for now."

The Jayhawks won one of four games in their conference-opening series against Missouri.

Kansas' 15 wins already equals last season's total, but Bingham said the Jayhawks have made no big strides. He said last season's record was misleading because the Jayhawks learned midway through the season that former coach Marty Pattin's contract wouldn't be renewed. After news arrived that Pattin wouldn't be back, everything was in disarray, Bingham said.

Bingham, who spent his last 14 years at Emporia State in Kansas, said he will have his eye on at least two Husker players this weekend because he will serve as an assistant to Stanford coach Mark Marquess for the U.S. baseball team at the Summer Olympics.

Bingham said third baseman Ron Crowe and shortstop Ken Sirak are among the players being looked at by the Olympic staff.

Sanders said the Huskers are virtually injury-free heading into the weekend. He said pitcher Joel Sealer, who injured his elbow earlier this season, is the only Nebraska player who is questionable.

Sanders said three of his weekend starting pitchers will be John Lepley, Rocky Johnson and Pat Leinen. He said he is not decided who his fourth starter will be.

Bingham said Kansas will counter with four right-handers. Juniors Scott Taylor and Craig Mulcahy will start Saturday, and sophomores Brad Hinkle and Tom Bilyeu will pitch on Sunday.

New State Games board members named

George Davis Jr. and D.C. "Woody" Bradford have been named to the Board of Directors of the Cornhusker State Games.

Davis, a transportation development analyst for Union Pacific Railroad and a former track All-America selection at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, was appointed to the board by Gov. Kay Orr.

Bradford, a partner in the law firm of Bradford, Coenen, Ashford and Stangle, was elected at the March meeting of the 16-member board.

"George and Woody both have solid sports backgrounds and are committed to continued development of a program that has proven its appeal all across the state," board president Jim Dill said. "Both will be great assets as the Games continue to grow and improve."
