

Rodgers caps 'best spring' with solid performance

Walker, outside linebackers Mike Croel and Jeff Mills, and safety Tim Jackson.

"During the first two series, I don't think emotionally they (the first-team defense) were in the game," McBride said. "Then, about the third series, they really started playing well. They thought they'd better step up the pace because they were getting knocked around pretty good." The Whites took the lead in the first quarter on a 15-yard option keeper by Dunlap with 10:06 remaining. Gregg Barrios added the extra point.

In the second quarter, linebacker Scott Kurtz picked off a Dunlap pass and raced 74 yards for the Reds' first score of the day. The Reds took the lead with 48 seconds left in the first half when Morgan Gregory returned a punt 59 yards. Chris Drennan's extra point made it 14-7 Reds at halftime. In the third quarter, Red I-back Terry Rodgers scored on a 5-yard run with 9:57 left. Rodgers, who played for both teams, led all rushers in the game with a combined total of 105 yards on 25 carries.

Osborne said Rodgers was the "one guy that held up and had the best spring" this year.

White fullback Brian Harchleroad cut the Reds' lead to seven, 21-14, on a 1-yard run with 7:31 left in the third quarter, but that's as close as they would come.

Drennan added a 37-yard field goal at the end of the third period, and Jim Kerwin and Ed Outlaw scored touchdowns in the game's final 2:34 to ensure the Red victory.

Besides Rodgers, McCant led the Reds with 35 yards rushing and completed five of six passes for 63 yards and one interception.

Dunlap led all passers, completing 10 of 19 for 122 yards. He also rushed for 28 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries.

Osborne said despite the injuries and remaining areas of concern, Nebraska has the talent to have a good team next season.

"But the difference between a good team and a great team will be getting a good combination in the defensive line with some depth," Osborne said. "We're still feeling our way along a little there."

Orioles' woes continue as Kansas City posts 3-1 win

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles sunk to 0-18 Sunday and stumbled closer to the worst losing streak in history as Bret Saberhagen tossed a six-hitter to lead Kansas City to a 3-1 win.

The Orioles' slide is the longest in the American League since the Washington Senators dropped 18 straight in 1959, tying the teams for the fifth-worst streak. The major league record is 23, set by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1961 and the AL record is 20, set three times.

The Orioles extended their record for season-opening defeats and their team mark for consecutive losses, not including five straight losses to end exhibition play.
