Two guerrillas killed in second raid

JERUSALEM — Palestinian guerrillas crossed Israel's heavily guarded border from Lebanon for the second day in a row Wednesday and wounded a truck driver before soldiers caught them in a ravine and killed them, the army said.

No Israeli army casualties were reported.

Israeli officials said the increase in cross-border raids appeared connected with nearly five months of violence in the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip.

Documents found on the two dead guerrillas showed they planned to take hostages and try to exchange them for Arab prisoners held in Israeli jails, using U.S. Ambassador Thomas Pickering as a negotiator, Israel radio reported.

Settlements in northern Israel were put on alert during a three-hour search for the guerrillas by foot patrols and helicopters. Roads were closed and men were told to stand guard with guns. Women and children were ordered to stay indoors.

On Tuesday, three guerrillas crossed the border at the same spot. They and two soldiers were killed when an army patrol found them.

A 14-year-old Palestinian girl died Wednesday of wounds suffered the day before when Israeli soldiers opened fire during a Arab protest in the occupied West Bank, the army and hospital officials said.

Her death brought to at least 174 the number of Palestinians killed since a rebellion began Dec. 8 among the 1.5 million Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza, which Israel has occupied since the 1967 war. An Israeli soldier and a Jewish settler also have been killed.

The guerrillas crossed the border unnoticed, and it was the truck driver who alerted troops after running away from the assailants, said the source, speaking on condition of anonymity.

While officials say violence in the territories has declined, Maj. Gen. Yossi Peled said on Israel radio: "There is an increased effort on the part of Palestinians to reach northern settlements... and this is certainly a change." He is chief of Israel's northern command, in charge of the border area.

Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin, apparently blaming Syria, said three-fourths of the attacks from Lebanon were "carried out by pro-Syrian PLO groups."

Also on Wednesday, an army inquiry said the teen-age Jewish settler who died April 6 in a clash with Palestinians in the West Bank town of Beita was killed by a bullet fired by an Israeli guarding her hiking party.

Trade bill passed with veto threat

WASHINGTON — The Senate approved, 63-36, and sent to the White House a sweeping trade bill Wednesday, but supporters fell short of the two-thirds victory margin needed to override a threatened presidential veto.

"The minuses outweigh the pluses," Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, said of the bill. He called key plant-closing provisions that drew heavy fire from the administration "economic terrorism."

Democrats tried to win over at least 14 Republicans and thus gain a veto-proof margin. They ended up with 11 GOP senators while losing one Democrat, retiring Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., who was concerned about the bill's changes in the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

The Reagan administration lobbied until the last minute to avoid a recurrence of its defeat last week when the House passed the trade bill by a margin large enough to override a veto.

One wavering Republican who supported the bill the first time around, Sen. David Karnes, R-Neb., went to the White House and met for 30 minutes with President Reagan and Vice President Bush.

He emerged from the session expressing concern over the duty-free imports of ethanol from the Caribbean saying "what I needed was the president's assurance that the administration was going to introduce another bipartisan bill that could be quickly passed by the Congress and signed."

"And I think he has done that," Karnes said.

Reagan renewed his veto threat and promised to work later for a milder version in a letter Tuesday to Senate Minority Leader Bob Dole, R-Kan.

Reagan called on lawmakers to "finish the trade bill process in a way that serves America's interests—not the special interests."

Sen. Edward R. Kennedy, D-Mass., defended the embattled plant-closings provision, saying 40,000 plants have shut down in this decade of increased foreign competition.

"Nearly 2 million people have lost their jobs each year," Kennedy said.

The house passed the bill last Thursday, 312-107, more than enough to override a veto.
