

School's almost out, but bands keep playing

From staff reports

Even though school is almost out for the summer, bands and music will continue to grace our fair city with their presence. The big summer tours will be cranking up soon, and local bands will, as always, be playing anytime and anywhere they get the chance.

This list, while by no means complete, is a listing of currently scheduled music appearances in the city and area in the next month. There undoubtedly will be additions.

At the Zoo Bar this Monday and Tuesday, Jr. Medlow & the Bad Boys will play rhythm and blues from Austin, Texas. On Wednesday, Blonde Waltz will appear, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Anson Funderburgh and the Rockets with Sam Myers, "blues from Dallas" will play.

On Thursday, The Limit and Lie Awake will play at Chesterfields. Lie Awake also will play on Friday and The Limit will play on Saturday.

At Duffy's, the New Brass Guns, The Return and Out of Habit will play a triple-bill Friday and Saturday.

At the Zoo, Top Jimmy and the Rhythm Pigs will play May 9. Amethyst is scheduled for May 10th, and Bobby Lowell & Co. will play on Bobby's birthday, May 11. On May 12, 13 and 14, a six-piece, blues-based band, The Blue Band, will appear there.

At Chesterfields, The Loose will play May 13 and 14. At Duffy's, Trout Mystery will play those same dates.

At the Zoo, Rock Formation will appear on May 16, the Tablerockers on May 17 and The Switch on May 18. Downy Mildew, Trout Mystery and Hetch Hetchy will play Duffy's May 17.

At the Zoo, Joe Louis Walker and the Boss Talkers, a recording artist from San Francisco, will play May 19, 20 and 21.

Joe Walsh will appear at the Sandstone Theater on May 21.

On May 23, the Tablerockers will make an appearance at the Zoo and The Swaydos will play on May 24.

At Duffy's on May 24, H R reggae, (ex-Bad Brains members) will appear, and Mile One will play on May 25.

At the Zoo on May 25, Dog Body will appear and on May 26, B & the Hot Notes will play.

At Arrowhead in Kansas City, Pink Floyd will play May 26. Tickets are $22.50 with dial-a-ticket, or $64.95 for the Q102 Concert Caravan.

On May 27 and 28, San Diego recording artists, Paladins, will play their bluesy rock-a-billy at the Zoo. On May 30 Lunch Money will play and on May 31, The Blue Crew will appear.

On May 31 at the Met Center in Minneapolis, Robert Plant will give a concert.

On June 1, The Bill Wimmer Group will play jazz at the Zoo. "Those dangerous gentlemen from L.A.," The James Harman Band, will play on June 2, 3 and 4.

At Chesterfields, Sidekick will play on June 2 and 3. On June 4, a KZUM benefit is scheduled, with the Cramm Brothers, a DJ rap group.

On June 3, Charlie Burton and the Hiccups will appear at Duffy's.

On June 5, at the Met Center in Minneapolis, AC/DC and White Lion will appear.

The Tablerockers will play the Zoo June 6. Dog Body will show up on June 7, and Kristi Rose and the Midnight Walkers from New York City will appear June 8 and 9. From Dallas, Bugs Henderson and the Shuffle Kings will play June 10 and 11.

At the Zoo, D.J. Lebowitz will return on June 13, Anson Funderburgh and the Rockets will play on June 14, and Magic Slim and the Teardrops will play on June 15 and 16. Lonnie Mack will play June 17 and 18.

Lie Awake will appear at Chesterfields on June 17 and 18.

Yabba Griffiths & Traxx Reggae will play June 24 and 25 at the Zoo, Last Roundup on June 28, while James Harman Band is scheduled to play on June 29. Buddy Guy will play June 30 at the Zoo.
