

Osborne says fans, point spread ridiculous

The touchdown was Millikan's 13th career touchdown pass, which is a Nebraska record for tight ends. Millikan said he was surprised he got the record on that play.

"I was just a decoy," he said. "I was just suppose to try to hold the corner downfield so he wouldn't come in the way of the primary receiver."

Missouri's Chris Hall took Tom Janky's ensuing kickoff and was hit and fumbled at the Missouri 22. The ball flew into the air and was grabbed by Nebraska's Charles Fryar, who ran in for an apparent touchdown. However, a personal foul was called against the Huskers and the ball was brought back to the Missouri 44. Missouri held the Huskers and forced Nebraska to punt.

"We talk and we talk and we talk to our players about discipline and poise," Osborne said. "Apparently a couple guys took a swing at each other and our guy got called. That was probably about the time Fryar was in the end zone.

"That (personal foul) has got to be about the dumbest thing I've ever heard of."

When Missouri got the ball back, halfback Mike Jones fumbled, and the ball was again recovered by Fryar. Nebraska took over at the Missouri 25 and capped a three-play scoring drive with a one-yard run from Tyreese Knox. That gave Nebraska its first lead of the game, 14-9.

Missouri regained the lead with 4:10 left in the third quarter on a three-yard run by Jones. The run capped a 63-yard, eight-play drive set up by a Ken Clark fumble. Missouri's two-point conversion failed, making the score 15-14.

the third quarter.

Missouri regained its final lead of the game at 18-17 with 10:43 left in the fourth quarter on a 51-yard Jacke field goal, his fourth of the game.

Nebraska added Carpenter's run and a 23-yard Drennan field goal to close out the scoring.

Missouri still had a chance to score a touchdown and a two-point conversion and tie the game, but Mike Croel intercepted a Brad Fitzmaurice pass at the Missouri 37 with 26 seconds left.

Nebraska's eight-point victory was about 30 points below the point spread in Las Vegas. Osborne said he couldn't believe that point spread, especially with the talent Missouri has.

"That was the most ridiculous point spread I've seen in my life," he said.
