Oklahoma defeats Widenhofer, Tigers

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A stunting defense motivated by the future of Coach Woody Widenhofer's job wasn't enough as Oklahoma posted a 16-7 victory against Missouri on Saturday.

Quarterback Charles Thompson led Oklahoma to three scoring drives in the first half as the Sooners tuned up for their showdown against Nebraska by turning back the upset-minded Tigers.

In other games, No. 14 Oklahoma State blitzed Kansas 63-24, Iowa State topped Kansas State 16-7 and Nebraska beat Colorado 7-0.

"I knew they would take a lot of gambles and make a lot of stunts," said Thompson. "You're going to have some success doing that. But 16 points happened to be enough today."

Widenhofer didn't get the upset he needed as ammunition to get his contract renewed and fell to 11-31-1 in his four seasons, 2-7-1 and 1-5 this season.

Heisman voters just can't ignore Barry Sanders.

The Oklahoma State back ran for 312 yards and became only the third player in NCAA history to top 2,000 yards in a season.

"What Barry did is something we can all share in," said Coach Pat Jones as his team went 7-2 and 4-2 with the victory in Stillwater, Okla.

Sanders has 2,003 yards, beating the Oklahoma State single-season record of 1,877 established by Ernest Anderson in 1982.

"I guess maybe it'll hit me 20 years down the road, but they're no big deal right now," said Sanders.

A104 Physical Education

My first time tutoring was a night to remember. My student was something called Bone Crusher Reed, a.k.a. Billy Jo, defensive tackle for the football team.

I had the shock of my life when he answered his dorm room door. He was about six foot seven...in diameter. And when he shook my hand, I thought I'd never get it back.

So there I was, face-to-knee with the big man on campus, wondering how I was going to relate American Literature to The Hulk.

But then he pulled out a can of Orange Cappuccino. I was shocked! Could it be that this tough jock liked its delicate taste? And when Bone Crusher brought out the bone china, I was beyond belief.

Reading the expression on my face, he said, "What can I say? I like it. The Café Francais is pretty good, too." Well, who's going to argue, I thought. As we sipped our Orange Cappuccino, I discovered that Billy Jo loves reading novels; his only problem was poetry. So I gave him tips on reading Emily Dickinson, and he gave me a copy of Ann Beattie's "Falling in Place."

All I could think was, Dad's never going to believe this!
