

'Mystic Pizza' reeks of trite romance and useless twists

with his dad, Chuck Sr., about the pressure he puts on him to succeed. Daisy feels terrible and leaves. You know the rest.

Finally there's Jo, the sensitive, but dippy one. She and her boyfriend, Bill (Vincent Phillip D'Onofrio), are by far the dullest couple in the story. Their story escapes a complete lack of originality by switching the stereotyped roles both play.

Bill wants more than sneaked sex in parents' homes and the ladies restroom of Mystic Pizza — he wants commitment. His talk of marriage and family terrifies Jo. She tells him she loves him, but she needs more time. Fed up with their unscrupulous relationship, Bill says no more sex until he can put a ring on her finger. And so many questions arise: Will the J. Crew sporting Yalies find something to do together besides babysitting? What color wedding dress will Daisy wear? When, if ever, will Jo make Bill an honest man? Most importantly, who cares? "Mystic Pizza" is playing at the Stuart theater on 13th and P streets. Admission for adults is $2.50 before 6 p.m., $4 after. $2.50 for children 13 and under.

I always thought once I graduated I'd be able to afford to eat more than mac & cheese and TV dinners. Now I realize it might not be so easy to make ends meet when I first start out. Answers anyone? Respond via personals. "Starving" Senior

"Starving" Senior:
If student loan payments will take a big bite out of your paychecks, check out NEHELP's Consolidation Loan. If you've borrowed $5,000 or more on your student loans, you might be eligible to combine your loans and lower your monthly payments. Bon appetit!

"Starving" Senior,
I had a hard time fitting student loan payments into my budget. The people at the Educational Planning Center told me that NEHELP's Consolidation Loan might make it easier. If you owe $5,000 or more on your student loans, call the Educational Planning Center at 475-5222 to find out more.
