staff, Wright said.

Other planning for the event included confirming performances and the deciding how to decorate the Union.

"We'll probably bring in streamers, balloons and signs," Wright said.

The committee, part of Campus Activities and Programs, has an estimated $3,000 budget, not including sponsorship.

Tickets, which are sold in 50 cent denominations, may be purchased at the event. The cost of admission into individual events varies.

Q. How do you top a Val's large for a medium charge?

A. On-campus delivery.

Here's the best deal around: Get a large original (single topping) pizza for the price of a medium. And we'll deliver it, piping hot and ready to eat, direct to your door.

Great pizza. A great deal. On-campus delivery. Now how in the world would you ever top that? Call today.

Fields' songs surrounding, swirling mosh

Songs off this album seem almost conceptual. "Moonchild," the first U.K. single, weaves around the listener while attacking with its solid beat and rocking rhythm.

"The Watchman" is another strong track, based on a dark comic character popular in the late 1960s.

Strangely, "Celebrate," an acoustic tune, is perhaps the most ominous. The lyrics are simply eerie.

"When the dawn has risen/From their comas risen/For the lesser blessed/it seems honest here./Celebrate."

Fields of the Nephilim is simply a band to be watched and listened to because of its uniqueness. Anyone who is serious about music should buy the album simply to be introduced to the unknown. This is not pop, metal, or country, but it is strangely powerful.

The vocals are unpleasant yet beautiful. The music is grinding yet effervescent. Everything flows, hypnotizes, creating a dark, gloomy dreamworld. Fields of the Nephilim are wanderers.

Like dusty cowboys in a futuristic world, they walk slowly, creating a musical force that will convert many listeners.
