take a lot of the blame and I think a lot of the other linemen will, too. We just stunk up the place."

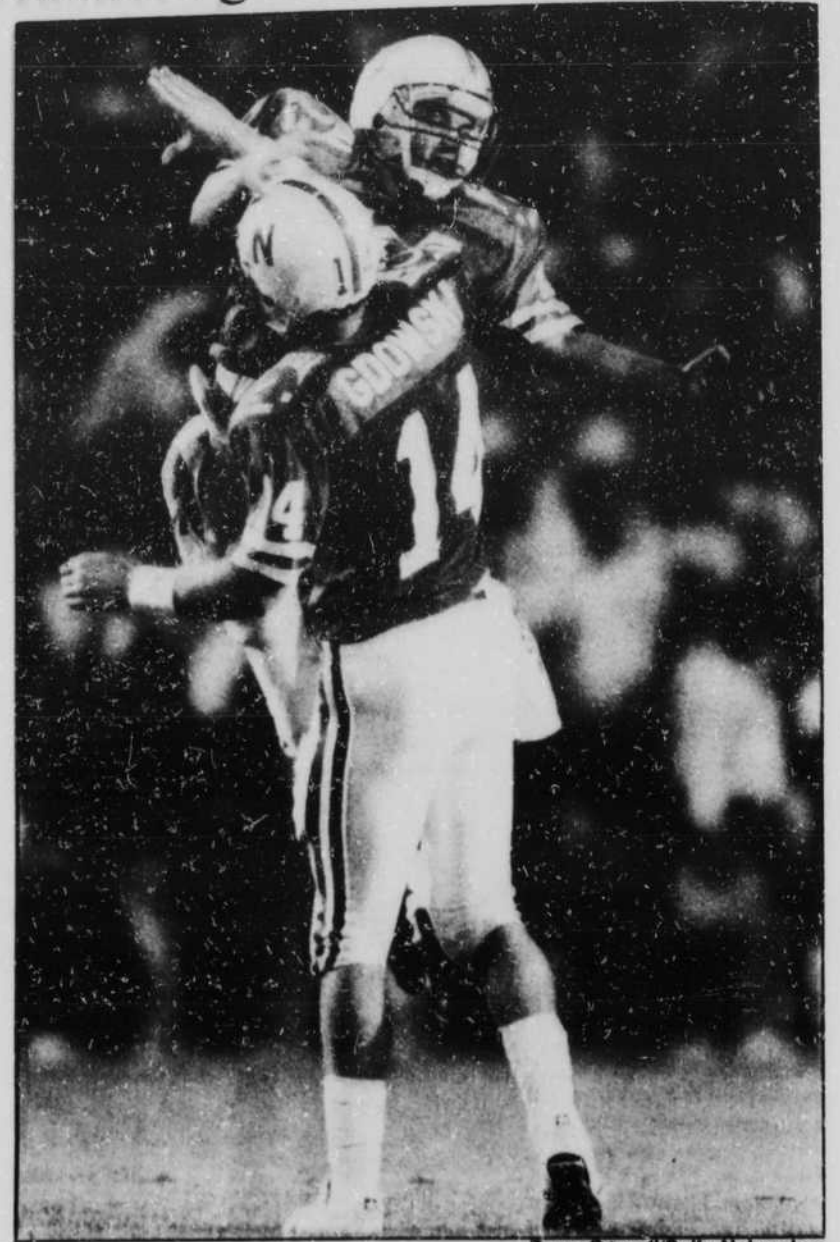

Keeler thought the Husker offense should have stuck with their game plan of running at Miami, rather than switching to the passing game.

"We threw a lot more than we ran," Keeler said. "We really didn't start running right at them. But hey, we got our butts kicked today. You saw it and I played in it."

Nelson said he and his teammates were frustrated by the loss.

"They're a good team," Nelson said. "Somebody's got to lose. It just wasn't working for us. I don't think we had our best night and they had a good night. That's just the way it goes."

Osborne said he was embarrassed because Nebraska didn't play better. He said he also felt bad that the seniors had to leave with a loss.
