Relocation helps business, size location improves

By Jim Hanna Staff Reporter

Picking up and moving an entire business, lock, stock and barrel to another location would seem to be a hassle that's not worth all of the effort. The business is established, people know where it is and the time and energy required for a move is monumental. But when the downtown store of Pickles Records and Tape moved in the spring of 1987, it worked out for the best. Mike Bullerman, assistant manager of Pickles, 1637 P St., said the several factors led to relocating the
