DN shocks The Toxic Shockers

From Staff Reports

The efforts of center Craig Wagner and forward Ryan Steeves led to the 52-40 defeat of The Toxic Shockers Tuesday night in Class 'C' intramural action at the NU Coliseum, said Jeff Apel, DN interim coach.

Apel, who was filling in for an absent Mike Kluck, praised center Craig Wagner and Ryan Steeves for the 16 and 18 respective points made.

The DN, 2-2, jumped out to a 10-2 lead in the first half behind the shooting of Wagner and Steeves. After leading by as many as 18 points in the first half, The Toxic Shockers used a strong inside game by center Rick Hill to cut the DN's lead to 32-20 at halftime.

But in the second half, the DN used a free throw by David Fablesen and a stream of baskets by Wagner and Steeves to pull away.

Hill led The Toxic Shockers, 2-3, with a game-high 23 points.

The game marked the debut of forward Jerry Guenther, who was 0-1 from the field.
