

diversions

Courtesy Polish Prints/ A Contemporary Graphic Tradition

"In the Sun of Freedom" by Cezary Kielar.

By Lane Van Ham
Staff Reporter

A collection of Polish art prints opened its national tour Feb. 20 at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of Art Gallery with the appearance of Cezary Kielar, one of the artists whose work is on display.

"Polish Prints: A Contemporary Graphic Tradition" includes 76 pieces by 44 artists and is on display in 102 Richards Hall (10th and T streets) through March 16. The display was made possible largely through the efforts of Gallery Director and UNL Professor of Art Karen Kunc, who got the idea on a trip to Poland three years ago.

"When I was there, I asked the artists I met if they would

See KIELAR on 12