Twisted Tales

I'll never forget the night of my Senior Prom. A friend of a friend had set me up on a blind date, and I waited in nervous anticipation for that fateful knock at my door.

She was a goddess in Spandex and leather. She commanded me to jump on the back of her Harley, and we roared off into the glorious, star-filled spring night.

As we walked into the gym, the music stopped—the only sound was the gurgling of the Hi-C in the punch fountain. Everybody was staring, so, with a smirk, she pulled me to the dance floor and we began to groove.

As we danced the night away, getting hotter and sweeter, no one could take their eyes off us. At Midnight, they crowned us King and Queen, but by then something else was on my mind. Ah yes, that was the night I became a man—the night I went to Prom with Lita Ford.
