Three shutout games open intramural flag football season

The Speed Merchants and Gleason's Team proved that they are major forces in intramural flag football by posting convincing victories in the opening week of action.

The Speed Merchants used a balanced offensive attack and a tough defense to shut out the Schramm 6 Pistols 34-0, while Gleason's Team bombed the Schramm Sixers/Sixettes 62-0.

In other flag football action, the Brew Crew defeated Alpha Tau Omega 27-0, the Scrapers II posted a 21-15 win against Abel 11/13 B and The Banshees defeated Pound 12/Cather 8 17-6.

Top 10 to be compiled by the Office of Campus Recreation

The weekly intramural top 10 will make its debut this week. Craig Christensen, the relations director at the Office of Campus Recreation, will compile the weekly ratings, which will appear in the Daily Nebraskan on Wednesdays. The ratings are recognized as the only official determinant of true national champions at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

NU softball team defeats media all-stars in annual contest

The Nebraska softball team used strong pitching from Deanna Mays to post a 2-1 victory against the media all-stars in an annual contest played at the NU Softball Complex.

Mays used her fastball to baffle the media all-stars, whose roster included Daily Nebraskan senior sports reporter Darran Fowler. Fowler struck out in his only two appearances against Mays.

Stacy Jajkowski defeated Collins at No. 4 singles, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4, Maat defeated Quinn at No. 5, 7-5, 7-6, and Janikowski and Boudouin beat Quinn and Coutretsis, 7-6, 3-6, 6-4.

Nebraska coach Gregg Calvin said the win was a good match in preparation for this weekend's Husker Invitational.

Drake, he said, defeated Iowa State last weekend 8-1. Even though the Huskers are a notch above the Bulldogs, having a match under their belt helped the Drake players even the odds.

"It was a match we could have lost if we didn't play good," Calvin said.

Even in the matches the Huskers lost, Calvin said he was pleased with the team's attitude.
