often will have in-store promotions and an animal mascot to greet customers.

Currently, Spahn said, the shop is working with several of the organizations appearing in December's Star City Parade. Fringe and Tassel will provide the costumes for both walking units and floats.

College groups and high school reunions have theme parties requiring costumes. In the past, Spahn said, Fringe and Tassel has provided costumes for parties with such themes as sock hops, the turn-of-the-century, the '20s or the '40s, costume balls and murder-mystery parties where everyone has to dress up like a murder-story character.

Costumes range from $28 to $35, Spahn said. If someone needs a costume right away, she said, they can pick one off the rack in the store. But a few days notice is needed for costumes that have to be made, she said.
