from Donohoe to wide receiver Quintin Smith.

Nebraska defensive coordinator Charlie McBride said he was concerned with the Huskers' defensive intensity.

"Overall, I don't feel like we were in any type of emotional peak in this game," he said. "It wasn't pretty." McBride said the team set a goal of giving up no more than seven points to the Jayhawks.

"But it happened again (Nebraska gave up more points)," he said. "I wish we could get over that."

Osborne said Kansas is a better team than people give it credit for.

"I think Glen Mason has done a real good job with them, and they gave an outstanding effort," he said.

No major injuries were suffered by the Huskers, Osborne said. Flowers finished the game with a sore shoulder, he said, but should practice this week and play against Oklahoma.

Tight end Chris Garrett suffered a sore back, but also should be ready for the Sooners, Osborne said.

Strong safety Reggie Cooper did not play against Kansas because of sore knees.

Despite Oklahoma's 7-3 record and NCAA sanctions that will keep it from attending a bowl game, Osborne said the Sooners still will pose Nebraska with a formidable game.

"We're really pleased," he said. "I was really scared going in, because we had some sickness and we were tired physically."

"But when I saw them in the water warming up, I knew we were going to have a good meet."

Huppert said his team's performance should erase any doubts about whether Nebraska belongs in the top 20. The Huskers were not ranked in the preseason poll, but Huppert said he hopes they are when the first regular-season poll is released Tuesday.

Huppert said opposing teams are beginning to notice the Huskers.

"I've been getting calls from coaches congratulating me," he said.

Huppert said Nebraska will face another stiff test next weekend, as the Huskers will travel to Greenville, S.C., to square off against Furman Friday and will face Clemson Saturday in Clemson, S.C.

Huppert said the Huskers know all about Clemson, which finished eighth at last year's NCAA championships.

"They're a legitimate top-10 team," he said. "It's going to be a challenge. It's that challenge that I've asked these athletes to face week in and week out."
