the band, video screens above stage and flaming fire pits among the musicians.

Last year's "Land Of Rape And Honey" established the band as the leader of industrial dance music -- "The Mind" continues the monarchy.

Main minister Jourgensen formed Ministry in 1981, going through several personnel changes and producing synthesizer-oriented dance music that appealed to the masses. A self-proclaimed sell-out, Jourgensen finally shifted gears with Barker and began recording the industrial grind that has made them ear-shatteringly popular with alternative music fanatics.

Opening for Ministry will be KMFD. The show starts at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $13 in advance, $15 the day of the show.

part, "John Elway's Quarterback." Joyce's will be sponsoring a contest consisting of two-man teams playing against each other on "All-American Football."

There is no entry fee, and participants only need to pay for their games, according to Butler. The contest will be Wednesday, Feb. 21. The winning team will divide $10 worth of tokens.

"One major thing about the tournaments is that I feel people hesitate to enter, because they feel they are not good enough," Butler said. "But there are only a small handful of people that are real good. So anybody who thinks they shouldn't enter because they aren't good enough, that's silly."

"That's what everyone else is thinking, too."

But no matter what, it seems that video games are here to stay. Smith said, "I think these kids will be playing video games for the rest of their lives, maybe not as much as they do now, but I think they will always come back when a cool game comes out."
