Lithuanian leaders reject ultimatum

MOSCOW (AP) - Lithuanian leaders said Sunday night they would not meet a Kremlin deadline for rescinding laws promoting independence despite a threat to cut off crucial supplies to the Baltic republic.

Lithuanian Deputy Prime Minister Romualdas Ozolas went on Lithuanian television as the 48-hour deadline by Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev expired to say that the Baltic republic's president and prime minister would convene a meeting Monday on Moscow's ultimatum.

Gorbachev sent a letter Friday to the republic's leaders, demanding that they rescind independence-oriented actions that he termed "anti-constitutional," including laws on canceling conscription into the Soviet army and seizing Communist Party property.
