Osborne: Team improves, entire scrimmage intense

By John Adkisson
Staff Reporter

Fewer turnovers meant more smiles for Nebraska football coach Tom Osborne after his team's scrimmage Saturday.

The Cornhusker offense gave up the ball twice during the three-hour scrimmage at Memorial Stadium, as opposed to the seven miscues last week. The workout was the last major tuneup for the Huskers before next week's spring game.

"Having just two turnovers was much better for this team, although there was some miscommunication among the first two units," Osborne said.

The offense was led by quarterback Mike Grant, who completed six of nine passes for 47 yards. Grant also ran for 13 yards and scored two touchdowns.

"Mike Grant played better and felt better today," Osborne said. "It seemed like the decisions he made were good."

Mickey Joseph, who has been battling Grant for the starting quarterback spot, struggled. Joseph was two for eight for 20 yards in passing and gave up an interception.

Osborne attributed some of Joseph's passing woes to strong secondary coverage by the Nebraska defense.

"We didn't get the ball up the field well today, but a lot of that is to the defense's credit. I thought our pass coverage was really good," Osborne said. "We've got eight or nine defensive backs that can come in and play for us."

Another offensive standout in the scrimmage was I-back George Achola. The sophomore from Omaha Creighton Prep, who is listed No. 5 on the depth chart, rushed 11 times, picking up 76 yards and one touchdown.

Osborne said that the entire scrimmage was "intense."

"Everybody was going hard today," Osborne said. "There were a lot of hard hits out there, and we're lucky that nobody got injured."

Osborne said one area of concern is the blocking of the offensive line. Husker quarterbacks were sacked three times Saturday, and were forced to hurry their passes all afternoon.

"We didn't do a very good job of protecting our passers," Osborne said. "(Defensive tackle) Kenny Walker was in the backfield after our quarterback all the time."

The first and second units each ran 55 plays against each other and will scrimmage again on Wednesday before Saturday's spring game.

Osborne said he thinks the team has progressed well thus far this spring.

"Right now we're not world-beaters on offense, but we've got the capability to be," Osborne said. "And right now, we're a good defensive team and hope to be a great defensive team come fall."

Kollias said he was not surprised by Reece's performance.

"He used the same tactics that he used in the Gold Gloves this year," Kollias said. "That is, his quickness and his incredible punching power."

Gundersen said the rest of the fights were almost as exciting, as three were decided by technical knockouts while the rest were decided by decisions.

"Ninety percent of them were real close," he said.

The results, as provided by Gundersen:

- Reece knockout of Hodgsen.
- Duke Bradford technical decision over Ed Hiatt.

- Jeff Larson decisioned Sean Walker.

- Grant Wieland split decision over Monty Larson.

- Gary McMichael technical knockout of Matt Selinger.

- Brent Flakamp decisioned Derek Leitner.

- Tom Fox technical knockout of Cal Sutherland.

- Shea Bourke technical knockout of Brian Austin.

- Todd Hurt decisioned Kasey Marler.

- Chris Kadow decisioned Chad Bainbridge.

- Scott Nelson decisioned Bart Frazier.
