

Shaun Theye of Bone Gravy pounds those skins in a sideburn furor.

Bone Gravy

Continued from Page 11 without sideburns has no place in society as far as we're concerned. It also it has a something to do with Sly and the Family Stone. I'm not sure what, I just know that they were the greatest family group of all time." As for the name "Bone Gravy," band members say they came up it during a collective drunken stupor.

during a collective drunken stupor. "We were talking about different sauces for a name," Shoemaker said, "and I said, 'yeah, sauces are fine, but gravy is better. It's thicker.' A lot of people thought it meant something dirty. By God, that just shows you where people's minds are."

In fact, food is one of the common denominators that Shoemaker, Theye and Hager share, according to them. Theye even aspires to be a chef.

Theye even aspires to be a chef. "I guess we've all had cooking jobs at one time or another," Hager said. "We know about gravy."

Mid West National Life Students Health and Accident Insurance

UNL has tried to find a medical plan to suit the needs of most of our students, graduate or undergraduate. Mid West Student Insurance Company and the University Health Center are working together to provide such a plan. The premium for student coverage is affordable, and works in conjunction with the Student Health Center fees to provide the best medical care available and as economical as possible.

The student is required to seek treatment at University Health Center whenever possible. To effectively utilize this policy your Health Center fees must be paid. In the event of an emergency, if you are more than 50 miles from UHC, or when a referral has been obtained from a UHC physician, there is a $75.00 deductible and MOST charges are paid at 80%.

Dependent coverage is also available for an additional premium. The policy is designed to help off-set the cost of major medical care and hospitalizations. It does not cover routine physicals, dental visits or prescriptions. Dependents must use community medical resources, and the deductibles will apply.

Rates for 1990/91 School Student Only	Year are as follows: $308.00
Student/Spouse	1144.00
Add for each Child	370.00

Open enrollment is from August 24 through October 5, 1990. For a breakdown of quarterly or semi-annual payments, please refer to the enrollment card. Detailed information and rates are available by mail or at the Student Health Center. There is also a 24-hour information line you can call at 472-7437.

Hyatt provides relaxing music

By Michael Deeds Senior Editor

Walter Hyatt "King Tears" MCA

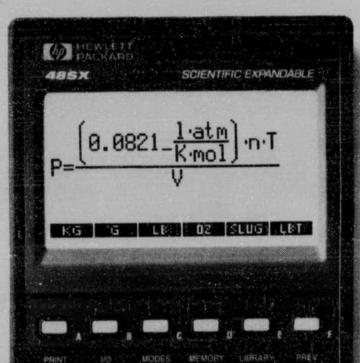

Soft and tasteful, masterful and refined, Walter Hyatt's jazz/blues vocal stylings take hold on "King Tears" and blow serenity in each ear.

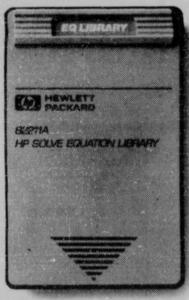

Hyatt, a veteran baritone, mixes the old with the new into a classic form of musical fluidity. Accompanied by a simple acoustic combo, Hyatt trots through standards like "Ruby," jazz ballads like "Tell Me Baby," and even an eclectic vision of depression -- "Que Reste-t-il de Nos Amours," where it doesn't matter whether or not the listener speaks French as Hyatt's textured vocals exude utter sadness.

Hyatt wrote most of the songs on "King Tears," and his natural vocal adaptation shows his ease of performance. Born in Spartanburg, South Carolina, Hyatt has broadened his musical horizons from folk to blues to jazz over the years.

Producer Lyle Lovett captures the simplicity of the music well, sticking to tried and true engineering techniques that enhance Hyatt's warm whispers and drawling singing style.

But none of the excellent quality is surprising for Hyatt. Hyatt has been a part of Uncle Walt's band, the Contenders, and has teamed up with the likes of B.J. Thomas, Jerry Jeff Walker, Gary P. Nunn and Shake Russell.

Lovett is an old friend of Hyatt's, whose success only adds to the commercial appeal of "King Tears." But the big force of attraction lies in the album's diverse stylings, covering virtually all facets of Hyatt's career.

This is the stuff you put on to impress a date in a modern New York studio apartment. But more importantly, it is music to relax to -- romantic, unthreatening and sophisticated, it only improves any atmosphere.

calculator takes a quantum leap into the 21st century. Buy an HP 48SX between August 15 and October 15, 1990, and HP will send you a free HP Solve Equation Library card (a $99.95 retail value).

The plug-in application card alone contains more than 300 science and engineering equations, as well as the periodic table, a constants' library, and a multi-equation solver. It's like having a stack of reference books right at your fingertips.

The HP 48SX calculator is so advanced, it will change the way you solve problems forever. It integrates graphics with calculus, lets you enter equations the way you write them, and does automatic unit management.

Check your campus bookstore or HP retailer for HP's range of calculators and special back-to-school offers. Then check out the calculators that are years ahead of their class.

There is a better way.
