

Nebraska falls 3 spots in AP football poll

The Associated Press

Coach Tom Osborne was pleased with Nebraska's 13-0 victory over Baylor. But others apparently weren't impressed with the Cornhuskers' performance.

Despite the opening victory Saturday, Nebraska fell three spots to No. 10 in The Associated Press college football poll. It was the biggest drop of any Top 25 team.

While Nebraska's defense was dominant against Baylor, the Cornhuskers' offense struggled and failed to score a touchdown until the final minute of the game. Still, the Cornhuskers received one first-place vote in this week's nationwide survey of 60 sports writers and broadcasters.

Miami, which starts its season at Brigham Young on Saturday, got the most first-place votes (27) and remained No. 1 with 1,444 points. Notre Dame, which meets Michigan in its opener on Sept. 15, stayed in second with 20 first-place votes and 1,421 points.

Auburn and Florida State tied for third with 1,304 points, although the Seminoles led 7-4 in first-place votes. Florida State, which trailed Auburn by 43 points in the preseason poll, gained ground on the Tigers even though neither team has played a game.

Michigan and Colorado switched places, with the Wolverines moving up to No. 5 and the Buffaloes falling to No. 6 after tying Tennessee 31-31 in the Pigskin Classic on Aug. 26.

Southern Cal moved up two spots to No. 7 after beating Syracuse 34-16 in the Kickoff Classic. Tennessee, which received one first-place vote, remained No. 8 after clobbering Pacific 55-7 and Clemson rose one notch to No. 9 following its 59-0 rout of Long Beach State.

Illinois is 11th, followed by Texas A&M, Alabama, Virginia, Arkansas, Brigham Young, Pittsburgh, Ohio State, UCLA and Washington. Rounding out the Top 25 are Penn State, Michigan State, Oklahoma, Houston and West Virginia.

Texas A&M climbed one spot to No. 12 after beating Hawaii 28-13 and Virginia, which overpowered Kansas 59-10, moved up a notch to No. 14.

BYU stayed at No. 16 after downing Texas-El Paso 30-10, Pitt rose one spot to No. 17 following a 35-3 victory over Ohio University and West Virginia remained No. 25 after beating Kent State 35-24.
