Coach plans passing game

By Todd Cooper
Staff Reporter

Although last year's tie with the Nebraska junior varsity football team brought recognition to his team, Snow (Utah) Junior College coach Paul Tidwell wasn't satisfied.

"We expected to play well and we felt real good about the way we played last year," Tidwell said. "But we certainly weren't satisfied."

"We had the opportunity to win on the field goal at the end of the game but we missed it."

Instead, the score ended up deadlocked at 23. It was one of two ties Snow had during 1989, leaving them at 6-3-2.

Nebraska and Snow meet today at 1 p.m. at Memorial Stadium. University of Nebraska-Lincoln student showing their student identification cards get in free.

"It's a big game, good national recognition," Tidwell said. "It's a chance for us to open up some eyes, we want to get off on the right start."

Eleven returning starters return to lead what Tidwell considers to be a young team this season.

"Right now we're young overall," he said. "We lost more defensive players than offensive, so I don't know how we're going to be tested. The kids are ready to hit someone else besides their teammates."

In fact, Tidwell expects plenty of hitting today.

"I expect it to be a hard-hitting, very aggressive game, (but) I also expect our players to come out healthy

"We watched the game against Baylor the other night," he said. "It was clear that we're going to have to stop the toss on the option."

"Our overall key is to stop the Nebraska offense from making big plays. We've got to play hard and aggressively."

Snow's offense is similar to Brigham Young's.

"We're kind of patterned after them," he said. "We use a lot of motion, a lot of shifting. There's a lot of pre-snap reads."

An offense similar to BYU's also means a lot of passing.

"It's no secret, we have to take advantage of the passing game," Tidwell said.

Tidwell expects sophomore quarterback Bret Barben to lead Snow in his first start.

"We have a couple of good passers," he said. "Barben throws the ball well, (but) this is his first start." Barben's primary target when passing will be sophomore wide receiver Colin McGonigle. When running it will be halfback Duncan Boyd.

"We should have a good game and good years from those guys," Tidwell said.

The Hall is the nation's first-ever traveling sports hall of fame, and it will be located at the east side of Memorial Stadium. It will be open to the public for three hours before the 1:30 p.m. kickoff.

The mobile indoor and outdoor display, housed in a 37-foot custom-built recreational vehicle, also features history and equipment exhibits, videos, a Field Goal Kicker game, a Hall of Fame Enshriners area and a special Knute Rockne Locker Room where the legendary coach gives his, "Win one for the Gipper," pep talk.

The USF&G Traveling College Football Hall of Fame is in its second season of a three-year odyssey of college football campuses.

PRACTICE roundup

J.V. Football -- The freshman team worked on adjustments to different formations yesterday in preparation for their season-opener today against Snow Junior College . . . The team practiced for 45 minutes in only helmets and shorts and ran the two-minute drill . . . "We worked on general adjustments just to get a look," offensive line coach Bill Kucera said. . . The practice, which included watching last year's Snow game, and quizzes over blocking assignments was used as a mental rehearsal. . . There were no new injuries yesterday and the team should be pretty healthy today, according to Kucera. . . "It

(the game) will be a good test for them, or a rude awakening," Kucera said.

Cross Country -- The team ran easy yesterday and will go through time trials today. . . The time trials, at Pioneers Park will be 1,000 meters less than a race would be. . . Coach Jay Dirkson said the heat has been really hard on the athletes. "It is hard to get quality work in," Dirkson said. . . Coach Dirkson said that all of the women and most of the men are in great shape. . . The team has their first meet in a week. . . "We will have a better idea then," Dirkson said.
