

After three weeks, 3 teams undefeated

The Associated Press

The Bengals, Giants and Bears remained unbeaten in varying fashions on Sunday. Cincinnati used quick-striking offense, New York tied it with overpowering defense and Chicago won with special teams.

All three moved to 3-0, with the Bengals and Giants cruising over New England and Miami, respectively. The Bears, however, got a big break and converted it into Kevin Butler's 52-yard field goal with four seconds remaining for a 19-16 victory over Minnesota.

Bears 19, Vikings 16

At Chicago, Vikings punter Harry Newsome fumbled a snap with 25 seconds left. The Bears recovered on the Minnesota 39, failed to make a first down, and Butler kicked his fourth field goal of the game.

"I let down 47 guys, I let down the coaches," Newsome said. "I just wonder why it happened. I always considered myself to have good hands. I practice that 30 to 40 times a day. Now, it will stick in my mind the rest of my life. It was a wobbly snap and it went through my hands."

Butler had field goals of 23, 51 and 32 yards before his winning kick, while Donald Igwebuikwe connected on three kicks for Minnesota.

Bengals 41, Patriots 7

At Cincinnati, Rodney Holman scored two touchdowns, one on a shovel pass from holder Lee Johnson on a fake field goal, and the Bengals held New England to 34 yards rushing.

Cincinnati's Jim Breech hit a 46-yard field goal in the first period that gave him a league-record 152 consecutive games with a score, surpassing the NFL mark set by Fred Cox of Minnesota.

Giants 20, Dolphins 3

In the two teams' first meeting since 1972 and second ever, the Giants completely shackled Miami's offense, which managed only 39 yards rushing. The Dolphins got into New York territory only once. Dan Marino had a mere 115 yards passing and New York kept the ball for 40 minutes, 18 seconds in a 20-3 win.

Ottis Anderson scored on a pair of 1-yard runs as he became the NFL's No. 8 all-time rusher with 9,433 yards, moving ahead of Earl Campbell.

Redskins 19, Cowboys 15

Chip Lohmiller kicked four field goals, one from 55 yards, and Darrell Green ran an interception back for a touchdown. The Redskins played the second half without Mark Rypien, who sustained a sprained knee.

Oilers 24, Colts 10

At Houston, Warren Moon became the all-time leading passer for the Oilers and scored three touchdowns. Moon completed 29 of 29 passes for 308 yards, giving him a career total of 19,289. He surpassed the club record of 19,149 yards by George Blanda.

The Colts lost top draft choice Jeff George with a stomach ailment in the second quarter. When both of George's replacements, Jack Trudeau and Mark Herrmann, were injured, George had to return.

Elsewhere it was Kansas City 17, Green Bay 3; San Diego 24, Cleveland 14; New Orleans 28, St. Louis 7; San Francisco 19, Atlanta 13; Philadelphia 27, L.A. Rams 21; L.A. Raiders 20, Pittsburgh 3; and Denver 34, Seattle 31 in overtime. Detroit and Tampa Bay played late, and the New York Jets and Buffalo play tonight.

tenBensel wins race

From Staff Reports

Nebraska cross country runner Fran tenBensel won her second straight race of the season to lead the Cornhusker women's team to a first place finish at Saturday's Doane Invitational at Crete.

After winning the women's division of the Woody Greeno-Nebraska Invitational a week ago, the sophomore from Arapahoe won Saturday's race with a time of 19 minutes, 42 seconds. The women's team won with 22 points, well ahead of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, which finished with 53 points. Nebraska's Kelly O'Donnell, back from a hip injury, finished second, Sylvia Veit fourth and Angie Lippold seventh.

On the men's side, Nebraska did not send enough runners to count in the team standings, but freshman David Iteffa, who has been slowed this season with a sore groin, finished second in 27:36.

NU softball team defeats Wayne in doubleheader

By David Moyer
Staff Reporter

The Nebraska softball team ran away with a doubleheader Sunday against Wayne State, winning 10-0 and 8-2 at the NU Softball Complex.

The Cornhuskers stole six bases in the second game, seven for the day, and took extra bases whenever possible.

In the first game, Nebraska got strong pitching from Stephanie Skegas. She gave up one hit in the shutout, pitching to the minimum number of batters. A second-inning single (the runner was caught stealing) kept her from a perfect game.

Michelle Cuddeford provided all the offense the Huskers needed, as she pounded out four RBI's and reached base all three times up. Cuddeford got six RBI's for both games.

In the fifth, Jennifer Stevens singled to right and the right fielder threw wildly into left field. Joy Rishel scored and the game ended with the 10-run rule.

In the second game, Marie Bowie gave up four hits and two runs in seven innings. Wolforth said he liked seeing the better pitching, although he thinks it still needs to improve by the Big Eight season.

Shae Sloan had three hits in the second game. After a single, triple and double in her first three at bats, she had a chance to hit for the cycle in the sixth but lined to third to end the inning.
