

Coach: OU better than record shows

By Todd Cooper

Nebraska fans may see three bowl games this year, according to defensive backfield coach George Darlington and graduate assistant coach Turner Gill.

The first bowl matchup will be Nov. 23 against Oklahoma, Gill said. "This is going to be their bowl game," said Gill, who scouted the Sooners' game against Kansas State on Saturday. "If they beat Nebraska, they know that they've done things well."

Darlington said Oklahoma's 7-3 record is deceiving.

"There's no way Oklahoma should have lost three ball games," Darlington told those attending Monday's Extra Point Club luncheon. "They certainly should not have lost to Texas. They probably should not have lost to CU (Colorado) and they certainly shouldn't have lost to Iowa State."

"I hope whatever they did to screw those three games up, they still know how to do in a couple of weeks."

Questions from those attending the luncheon then turned to the Cornhuskers' bowl plans.

"We think we're going to a bowl," Darlington said. "The Daily Nebraskan doesn't think we're going to a bowl."

An article in Monday's Daily Nebraskan quoted Citrus Bowl official Jerry Banks as saying the selection committee also was considering Penn State, Florida State and Michigan, should the Huskers lose to Oklahoma and should those teams still be available. Those teams are already verbally committed to other bowls, though official invitations can't be extended until Nov. 24.

Darlington joked that formal extensions from the Fiesta Bowl might include Lincoln as the site. Fiesta Bowl officials were considering finding a new home for the game, which currently is held in Tempe, Ariz., if any invited teams protested Arizona's rejection of a state holiday that would honor Martin Luther King Jr.

"I'd like to mention the Fiesta Bowl is going to be moved to Lincoln,"

Darlington said, drawing laughs from the club members. "Tickets are going to be $30 apiece, plus ear muffs."

OU tackle named player of week

From Staff Reports

Oklahoma tackle Scott Evans who had eight tackles in the Sooners' 34-7 victory over Kansas State on Saturday was selected as the Big Eight defensive player of the week Monday.

Evans led Oklahoma's defense that held the Wildcats to just 31 yards rushing on 32 attempts. He had seven unassisted tackles, including two quarterback sacks for a minus 23 yards. He had another stop for a minus three yards.

The offensive player of the week honor went to Iowa State placekicker Jeff Shudak who had a school record five field goals in a 27-25 win over Missouri.

Shudak hit field goals of 33, 26, 51, 41 and 36 yards. His 36-yarder came with 14 seconds remaining in the game and proved to be the game winner.

Thater wins award

From Staff Reports

Nebraska sophomore middle blocker Stephanie Thater was named the Big Eight volleyball player of the week Monday, after propelling the Cornhuskers to three league wins last week.

Thater's numbers for last week were a .367 hitting percentage, 28 kills, 11 blocks, 10 digs and two service aces. She currently leads the Big Eight in both hitting percentage (.359) and blocks, averaging 1.6 blocks a game.

Runner qualifies

From Staff Reports

Nebraska's Fran tenBensel has qualified as an at-large entry for Monday's NCAA cross country championships at Knoxville, Tenn., Coach Jay Dirksen announced.

She finished fifth at this weekend's district meet but only the top four automatically qualified.

Bowl president: Game to stay in Tempe

The Associated Press

During a marathon Sunday session, Fiesta Bowl president Larry Gunning announced that the game would remain at Arizona State University's Sun Devil Stadium in Tempe, a Phoenix suburb.

With the official invitation date (Nov. 24) still almost two weeks away, most of the bowl pairings are set. Always subject to change, it looks like this, including the latest rankings:

Orange, No. 1 Notre Dame vs. No. 2 Colorado; Cotton, No. 3 Miami vs. No. 7 Texas; Citrus, No. 4 Georgia Tech vs. No. 11 Nebraska; Holiday, No. 5 Brigham Young vs. Texas A&M; Sugar, No. 8 Virginia vs. No. 14 Tennessee or No. 15 Mississippi; Blockbuster, No. 9 Florida State vs.

No. 18 Penn State; Rose, No. 10 Washington vs. No. 13 Iowa; Gator, No. 16 Michigan-No. 21 Ohio State winner vs. No. 24 Auburn; Hall of Fame, No. 17 Clemson vs. No. 22 Illinois;

John Hancock, No. 19 Southern Cal vs. No. 23 Michigan State; All American, No. 20 Louisville vs. North Carolina State; Independence, No. 25 Southern Mississippi vs. Baylor; Freedom, Oregon vs. Colorado State; Peach, Indiana vs. Tennessee-Mississippi loser; Copper, Wyoming vs. California; Liberty, Michigan-Ohio State loser vs. Air Force (if it beats Texas-El Paso); Aloha, Arizona vs. Syracuse; Raisin, Central Michigan vs. Fresno State-San Jose State winner.
