Former Huskers to play NU seniors

A team of former Nebraska football players will play a team of 1990 Cornhusker seniors tonight at 7 at Lincoln Southeast High School in a benefit for the American Heart Association.

The "Legends" team of former players will include Coach Jerry Tagge, Turner Gill, Steve Taylor, Gerry Gdowski, Craig Sundberg and others, not all of whom are quarterbacks. The "Seniors" will include, among others, Captain Dave Edeal, Kenny Walker and Mike Croel. Tickets are $5 for adults, $3 for children 12 and under.

NU-OU to match up after Thanksgiving

The 1991 Nebraska-Oklahoma football game will be played Nov. 29 in Memorial Stadium and will be televised by ABC. The game originally was scheduled for Nov. 23, but was moved to the day after Thanksgiving for the second straight year.

NU volleyball loses 2 players

The Nebraska volleyball team, national semifinal loser last season, has lost two players with eligibility remaining this off-season.

Junior-to-be Valerie Vermeulen, who missed much of the early season with illness, left Nebraska last week to join the Maryland volleyball program.

A setter, Vermeulen played in four games last fall. She finished her career at Nebraska with 16 digs, 12 kills and two aces.

Vermeulen said the biggest reason for leaving was her lack of playing time.

"I love it here, and I love the people," Vermeulen said. "I'm sorry that I have to go."

Vermeulen said she made the decision to leave during the Big Eight tournament and began looking at other programs, including Pittsburgh and Hofstra.

Senior-to-be Sara Hesch, whose season was hampered by a shoulder injury, will take a medical hardship next fall.

"My shoulder is pretty bad," Hesch said. "I can play intramural basketball and it hurts, but it's nothing like it is during volleyball."

Despite being able to play intramurals, Hesch said she has no intentions of following twin sister Sue to the Nebraska women's basketball team. The free time created by the lack of practice will go toward academics, Hesch said.

"I'm upset, in a way, that I can't play volleyball any more," she said. "I'm going to hit the books now."

A middle blocker who played in 23 matches last season racking up 47 kills, Hesch will remain on scholarship but will not play.

Setter Val Novak, outside hitter Linda Barsness and defensive specialist Becky Bolli used up their final years of eligibility last fall as they guided the Cornhuskers to the Final Four for the second straight year.
