Once again this year's Greek subrosas have proven their own hypocrisy. If this is the so-called "elite" Greek leadership, then we possibly need to re-evaluate our situation. For many, these "newsletters" might seem witty and fun, but for the majority they are more embarrassing than anything else. In today's Greek system, we need to support each other not tear each other down.

Patti L. on your great finish in the Nebraska News Photographers Association's Pictures of the year competition!

To whom it may concern, the following is our farewell to arms: Secret Societies: Do you have decoder rings? You are secret to yourselves, no one else cares. Stop publishing your newsletters, you're going to run up daddy's credit cards!

Greek System: You're interpretation of progress is making the most robots the fastest. Yeah, all of the silly societies are included! Alumni of Theta Xi: After 20 years of no support—you showed up and didn't give us any support—thanks! To all the former members that skipped bills: Your credit is screwed, so lick bag.

To the active with the largest house bill and lowest GPA: President Lichter, you really are an AS&T to this house. Nice going on the bathroom twinkles, keep trying, respect may be lurking around any corner—NOT!! Phi Deltas: Revenge is best served cold. Have fun watching your backs. Beta's: Grow balls.

Terrence: We know where you live. SAE and ADII: Thanks for the quasi-enjoyable TRIAD Dinner. Food and conversation was...simply putting it, boring. To the houses who are happy to see us leave, remember this, you're next. To all individuals or organizations not previously mentioned: UP YOURS!

The men of Theta Xi.
