Cornhuskers ranked 15th

OMAHA (AP)—For the first time in 14 years, Nebraska is not in the Associated Press preseason Top 10.

The Cornhuskers are ranked 15th in the AP preseason poll, the same spot they occupied in 1977, the last time Nebraska debuted out of the Top 10.

"That's people's opinion and they're entitled to their opinions," Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne said of the poll. "I've said for years that the first ranking of the season doesn't really mean a whole lot, so we'll just have to wait and see if they're right or wrong."

Osborne said the lower-than-usual spot in the poll shouldn't make much difference to his squad.

"If you have a good team, it doesn't hurt," he said. "If the pollsters are right, then that's not good. . . I think we've got a good team, so it'll be interesting."

Florida State is No. 1 in the Top 25. The Seminoles are the overwhelming choice, getting 49 of 60 first-place votes and 1,483 of a possible 1,500 points from a nationwide panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

Three Nebraska opponents are in the Top 25, including No. 4 Washington. The Huskers and the Huskies will meet Sept. 21 in Lincoln.

Big Eight conference rivals Oklahoma and Colorado, last year's national co-champion, are 10th and 13th respectively.

In addition, Nebraska opponents Colorado State and Kansas received votes.
