Hughes

Hughes now is nursing a sore shoulder, the same one he injured in the Florida Citrus Bowl on New Year's Day.

"I just want to have a good season and keep improving," Hughes said. "Of course it would be nice to be All-American, but first things first."

As far as the team's attitude goes, Hughes said, he feels this year will be different than last year.

I'm not saying we'll pass more than we'll run, but we will pass when we need to.
Tyrone Hughes

— 99 —
"After the Colorado game, we really came apart as a team," he said. "This year, I feel we're more unified and if we can stick together even in the tough times, we should prosper in the end."

Football network adds stations

From Staff Reports

The Nebraska Football Network has added two out-of-state stations, bringing this year's national total to 44 stations, according to Kent Pavelka, the "Voice of the Cornhuskers" on the network.

Pavelka, who also serves as sports director and operations manager at network flagship station KFAB in Omaha, said the new stations are KBBT in Portland, Ore., and WRPX in Hudson, Wis., serving the Minneapolis-St. Paul area.

The network now reaches metropolitan areas such as Phoenix, Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, Denver and Portland.

The network includes 32 stations in Nebraska and bordering cities in Iowa and South Dakota.

Pavelka said that although the number of stations is down one from the all-time high in 1990, this year's lineup will cover the largest geographic area in the network's history.
