ATTENTION STUDENT LEADERS

The Insuring Tomorrow Award recognizes outstanding leaders from each college and division on campus. Winners are selected based on academic, community and campus involvement in helping to "insure tomorrow." Pick up an application today in the CAP office, WRC, Culture Center, or your college's Dean's office or Advising Center. Applications are due October 25th.

Attention New Students Be A Part Of The PEER PROGRAM

New students are matched with upperclass students in a one-on-one mentoring relationship. Weekly meetings between you and your PEER Leader (arranged on your own) involve working through learning activities created to help you become a more successful student. You will also have the opportunity of participating in social activities designed to help you meet other students in the program. This is a great way to begin your involvement! If interested, come to the Campus Activities and Programs Office, 200 NE Union or CAP-East 300 East Union to complete a brief application. Deadline is today.
