

Jim's Journal

by Jim

I walked past my chair today and noticed Mr. Peterson chewing on it.

When she saw me she ran away.

I sat down to watch some TV.

Nothing was on.

I saw Tony and Jill again today.

They both said hi to me as I passed them.

Later in the day Tony stopped by.

"Jim," he said, "you ever know somebody who did little things that just bugged you?"

NOTHING LIKE THE JIM

Jim's Journal

I saw Tony today. He had just come back from picking up his mail.

I asked him where Jill was.

"You don't wanna know," he said.

He flipped through his mail to see what he got.

At the copy store today I worked with Hal.

While he was looking at the copy we made, I noticed how tightly curled his hair is.

He showed me some paste-up marks he found on the copy, and told me to touch them up.

"This wouldn't happen if we had one of those Canon 6650's," he said."

Jim's Journal

I made myself a peanut butter and jelly sandwich today and sat down to eat it.

I thought I'd listen to the radio while I ate.

I tuned in a few stations to find something good.

But nothing good was on.

Work one weekend a month and earn $18,000 for college.

If you have the mind for college, but not the money, the Nebraska Army National Guard has a golden opportunity for you. Lend us your brainpower one weekend a month and two weeks a year, and we'll give you $18,000 or more for college. Under the New GI Bill, you'll qualify for up to $5,000 for tuition and books. Then you'll get another $11,000 - or more - in monthly Army Guard paychecks. Plus, a cash bonus of up to $2,000 as soon as you finish Advanced Individual Training. And if you have college loans, the Guard will help you pay those off, too, with up to $1,500 extra per year. No other service offers you so many educational benefits, and asks so little of your time. So, if you can spare one weekend a month for your country, call your local recruiter. And help yourself to a higher education.
