

Knutzen featured one of his hats with this asymmetric A-line dress with cut-out shoulders. This was Knutzen's first show to feature his hats—the same hats that are part of the window display at the Hollywood shop "Monsters," he said.

The "fur derrier" hotpants come from Knutzen's lycra plaid collection.

Knutzen said he owes the concept for the hat to Whoopi Goldberg and his grandmother's couch. The jacket has no shoulder seams and features lapels of sparkling red lame.

This off-white brocade dress has scalloped sleeves and hem.
