Advertising Manager
Candidates for the 1992-93 ad manager should have a basic understanding of advertising layout and copy writing, sales and sales management and the local market. They should have relevant sales experience, perhaps academic preparation in advertising, marketing and management. The ad manager directs the display and classified advertising departments including training, supervising and managing the ad staff, coordinatinting regular staff meetings, developing strategies for increasing sales and responding to complaints. The ad manager is hired from mid April, 1992-May 7, 1993.

Editor In Chief
The 1992-93 editor in chief formulates editorial policy, determines guidelines for the daily operation of the newsroom, hires the senior editorial staff, helps determine the content of the editorial page and prepares the editorial salary budget. Applicants must have one year of newspaper experience, preferably at the Daily Nebraskan and submit clips when applying. The position begins August 1, 1992 and lasts until May 7, 1993.

Both positions pay $950/month (except December and May) and report to the UNL Publications Board. The editor and ad manager must be enrolled at UNL for at least six credit hours during each of the two 1992-93 semesters and maintain a minimum 2.0 GPA. Applications are available at the Daily Nebraskan office, basement of the Nebraska Union, and must be returned by 3 p.m., Feb. 26, 1992

Daily Nebraskan
UNL does not discriminate in its academic, admissions or employment programs and abides by all federal regulations pertaining to same.
