

Star Trek's Lt. Worf to 'warp' to convention Newvid

Two-day Omaha 'Trekfest' features actor's appearance, collectibles from TV series

convention PREVIEW

From Staff Reports

A "Trekfest" Star Trek convention and festival featuring Michael Dorn will be Saturday and Sunday at the Holiday Inn Convention Center in Omaha.

Dorn plays Lt. Worf, the only Klingon officer aboard the legendary Starship Enterprise, on the Fox network's "Star Trek: The Next Generation."

He was also featured in "Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country," as the grandfather of his character on the new series. Dorn is the only "Next Generation" cast member to bridge the gap between the two shows.

Dorn will be available at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday and 2 p.m. on Sunday to answer questions about his role in the new Star Trek TV series.

Also, dealers from around the United States will offer rare Trek collectibles for sale and display.

Trivia and costume contests, door prizes and giveaways will start at noon each day.

Presentations of the best moments from "Star Trek," "Star Trek: The Next Generation" and Star Trek bloopers also will begin at noon each day.

Cost for the convention is $15 per person per day. Children ages 8 and under are free. Tickets will be available at the door.

For more information, call the Holiday Inn Convention Center, 3321 S. 72nd St. in Omaha.

bent on obtaining another struggling company.

Larry tries to take over Andrew Jorgensen's (the legendary Gregory Peck) family-owned business, New England Wire and Cable. He can't budge straight-arrow Jorgensen amiably, so he goes for blood.

Jorgensen arms his camp with a beautiful young attorney (Penelope Ann Miller of "Kindergarten Cop") who is as ruthless as Larry. She stonewalls him. He falls in love.

Adapted from the off-Broadway play for the screen by Oscar-winner Alvin Sargent ("Ordinary People"). (Available today)

"Twenty-One" (R) From the producers of "sex, lies and videotape" comes the story of a 21-year-old Brit who moves to Manhattan to begin a new life. (Available today)

"American Tail 2 — Fievel Goes West" (G) The American Tail takes to the frontier and westward expansion, with Fievel in chaps and in tow. (Available tomorrow.)
