

'Zentropa' works a spell on audience

Jean-Marc Barr is Lopold in "Zentropa."

"Zentropa"

Imagine watching a Hitchcock movie while under the influence of hallucinogens. Imagine reading a Kafka novel in one sitting, or bumping around in the dreams of David Lynch. Or simply sit through

"Zentropa" and let this provocative thriller turn you inside out.

"Zentropa" begins by literally hypnotizing its audience and proceeds to explore the morality, terror and absurd humor of the inner psyche through the misadventures of its main character, an American named Leopold

Kessler (Jean-Marc Barr). Kessler finds himself in post-World War II Germany working for his uncle as a sleeping car conductor on Zentropa, a train formerly used to transport Jews to death camps. Kessler wants to remain neutral, but pressures come in black and white. On one side, the American military tries to maintain control while Germany is rebuilt; on the other side, Nazi supporters called Werewolves attempt to subvert the shaky established order and both sides press for Kessler's support.

Added to the mix are shades of gray that Kessler must decipher, like the seductive appeal of a woman named Katharina (Barbara Sukowa) and the expectations of her family. "Zentropa" is showing Sunday only at the Mary Riepma Ross Film Theater. Showtimes are 3, 5, 7, and 9 p.m. — Calvin Clinchard

Drinkin' beer, shootin' the bull: it's Bubba time

ATLANTA (AP) — If you thought "thirtysomething" was how many beers $15 ought to buy at the 7-Eleven, your time has finally arrived along with that fella from Razorback country. At least, so say the editors of a publication that just hit the news racks.

It's called "Bubba Magazine." The slick, TV Guide-size journal offers pieces defining the Bubba culture it says President Clinton will foster.

The 300,000-copy first issue is already sold out in many bookstores around the country, Editor Dean King said.

"Bill Clinton is Bubba's new dawn," enthused King.

"Bubbas are friendly, outgoing sorts," the magazine says while explaining how the term fits Clinton's style.

The magazine takes on such questions as "How to explain Hillary," who is, it says, no Bubbette. It urges tolerance, noting that she lets Clinton smoke cigars, play golf and go to McDonald's. "That ain't bad."

It also includes an affectionate profile of down-home first mother Virginia Kelley, the best "evidence that the 42nd president hails from the F-150-driving side of town." (City slickers note: That's a Ford pickup.)
