Putting People First A Response to the Animal Rightists

Putting People First is a non-profit grassroots organization of ordinary people who eat meat, drink milk, support biomedical research, wear leather and wool, hunt and fish, own pets, go to zoos, circuses, and rodeos, and benefit from the wise and rational use of the earth's resources.

Putting People First does not represent any industry or special interest. They respect the views of others and defend their right to those views, but they demand the right to hold their beliefs.

Deafening Leppard

Def Leppard (singer Joe Elliot pictured) filled three hours of their Monday night Pershing Auditorium show with spectacular lasers, multicolored spotlights and music. The concert, in support of their album 'Adrenalized,' was a buffeting of the senses.
