Have you heard about the "upper-class" residence hall at UNL?

Starting in the 1993-94 school year students residing on campus will have an opportunity to live in our new "upper-classpersons only" residence hall. Cather hall will go CO-ED and will be available only to students who have completed their first year of college.

Besides the lifestyle advantages of a more mature living environment, students living in the upper-class hall will benefit from a number of enhancements including:

- Computer rooms on every floor.
- Microwaves on every floor.
- Linen service at no extra cost.
- All rooms will be single contracts unless otherwise requested.
- Laundry facilities on every floor.
- No moving hassles; beginning next spring, belongings can be left in your room over the summer.
- 24 hour visitation on all floors.
- Vacation housing available for $110.
- Microfridges included in "vacation housing" rooms at no extra cost.

"Move on up" to Cather hall and have an upper-class experience.
