Country singer Patty Loveless will appear in concert Friday at the Bob Devaney Sports Center with fellow country singers Larry Stewart and Vince Gill.
Loveless
 Loveless has kept busy recording and touring. Currently, she is on tour with artist Gill, who has travelled the musical spectrum, from bluegrass to rock to country. Gill and Loveless have more in common than rock, bluegrass, and country. Both are suckers for a good ballad, she said. "Ballads are the type of songs that grab a hold of your heart and feel like it's just squeezing it right out of you," she said. "Vince appreciates that type of music same as I do. I think that's why we make a real good package together."
 was something different," she said. "It was another side of life I felt that I would never see."
 Since reconnecting with Nashville and the country music scene,
